

Chrysler and UAW Expect Early Accord

No Agreement but Reuther Points to 'Meeting of Minds'

Detroit—UAW—Walter P. Reuther failed today for the second time in a week to achieve a clear-cut labor contract settlement for his United Auto Workers with Chrysler Corp., but he reported a meeting of minds that would make his further presence unnecessary.

Reuther had hoped to clear up the Chrysler situation so the union could devote its full attention to the huge General Motors Corp. Ford, other member of the auto industry's Big Three, reached agreement with the union almost two weeks ago.

The United Auto Workers president led his team through 18½ hours of marathon bargaining which began Monday morning and was interrupted only for brief lunch periods, subcommittee meetings and separate caucuses by the union and Chrysler.

He had indicated before the start of the session that an agreement could be hammered out within six or seven hours if Chrysler "really wanted to bargain."

Problems Remain
As was the case last Wednesday morning after a similar 16 hours of bargaining, Reuther emerged from the conference room to tell newsmen there were still some unsettled problems.

He indicated that agreement had been reached on major features of a contract similar to the 3-year agreement which Ford and the UAW reached Sept. 17. The Ford agreement was expected to set the basis for contracts at Chrysler, General Motors and the independent auto makers.

Reuther told newsmen "we have reached a meeting of the minds on a basic contract but we still have some problems to settle involving office and salaried workers, engineers and seniority."

"I am going now to General Motors, but will leave my administrative assistant, Jack Conway, to continue the talks with Chrysler after a 2-hour recess so everybody can get some breakfast."

Reuther said his presence no longer was necessary and that the UAW's Chrysler bargaining team directed by Conway could reach a settlement.

John D. Leary, Chrysler vice president in charge of personnel, followed Reuther to the interview room and told newsmen "No, it's not settled. We are very close and should reach agreement sometime today."

One of the landing craft—22,000-ton LSDs (landing ship, dock)—has already made the run to the battered offshore island with U.S. 8-inch howitzers under the supervision of U.S. marines.

The guns were turned over to nationalist crews for installation. Up to now, the biggest guns used by the nationalists were 155 mm.

The new landing ships en route are capable of carrying eight smaller landing vessels in water-filled holds. They can carry up to six times as much cargo as the LSTs (landing ship, tank) now used by the nationalists.

With their present collection of equipment left over from World War II the nationalists have not been able to get through to Quemoy the 350 tons of supplies needed daily on the besieged offshore islands.

Hurricane Ilsa Loses Force in Atlantic
Washington—U.S.—Hurricane Ilsa, a storm which did nobody any harm because it chose to stay at sea, roared along toward its death today in the north Atlantic.

Unlike its savage predecessor, Helene, the closest Ilsa came to land was 230 miles east of Bermuda.

Ilsa, traveling a steady northeast course, was located by ship reports about 350 miles southeast of the New-foundland coast at 5 a. m. It still packed squalls of hurricane force for a short distance, with gales extending outward several hundred miles.

Beirut Hit By Walkout And Blasts

Beirut—U.S.—A general strike enforced by sporadic shooting and bomb explosions virtually paralyzed this capital today.

The walkout was instigated by followers of Camille Chamoun, who has re-entered the snarled political arena only seven days after retiring as president of Lebanon.

He and his followers in the new national liberal party held a strategy meeting in Ain el Kabou, a mountain village overlooking Beirut.

The Phalangists, loyal followers of Chamoun, have manned barricades in the Shrafeh district here, and their roadblocks across highways disrupt traffic in and out of the capital.

Shootings and bombings were constant reminders to shopkeepers and business firms to keep their establishments closed.

The Chamoun group is trying to bring down the government of former rebel leader Rashid Karami. The opposition forces cannot be classified as rebels since there is no actual fighting.

Four Fined for Topsy Driving

Men Also Have Licenses Revoked For One Year

Four drivers were fined and their licenses were revoked for one year this morning in municipal court on charges of drunken driving.

They are James R. Bednarowski, 21, 3044 W. Northland avenue; Russell D. Jones, 37, 312 Elm street, New London; Stanley S. Thompson, 48, 734 E. Atlantic street; and Alfred O. Behm, 57, route 2, Black Creek. Bednarowski was fined $125 after he pleaded guilty. He was arrested at 1:30 a.m. Saturday after city police followed him for several blocks during which they said he drove on the wrong side of the street, narrowly missed other cars and drove at speeds up to 45 miles per hour.

He tested .21 on the drunkometer. A reading of .15 is considered evidence of intoxication.

Jones was fined $100. He was arrested Sunday by state police in the town of Hortonville after he was seen driving erratically. He did not take the drunkometer test.

Thompson was fined $100. He was arrested by state police Monday night on Highway 45 in the town of Greenville after he drove erratically. He tested .24.

Behm was fined $100 after he pleaded no contest. He was arrested by county police Sunday evening in the town of Bovina after he jacked his car into another car that had been involved in an accident. Behm didn't take the drunkometer test.

Squillante Held In Anastasia Case

New York—U.S.—Vincent Squillante, one-time boss of New York's multimillion-dollar private garbage disposal industry was picked up last night by police for questioning about the underworld killing of mobster Albert Anastasia.

"I take the fifth amendment," he said over and over. Police charged the 41-year-old Squillante with vagrancy, through to Quemoy the 350 tons of supplies needed daily on the besieged offshore islands.

2 Try to Flee Alcatraz

Convict Caught, Companion Hunted

Aaron W. Burgett

San Francisco—U.S.—A posse combed fog-shrouded Alcatraz island and its surrounding San Francisco bay waters today for one of two convicts who bound a guard in an escape attempt.

Guards at the federal prison captured one man yesterday within two hours after the pair tried for the "impossible" escape from The Rock which is surrounded by chilly, fast-moving bay waters.

A 60-man posse ranged over the island during the night in a relentless hunt for Aaron Walter Burgett, 28-year-old Missouri gunman serving 26 years for post office robbery and assault. Coast guard cutters circled the island.

His companion, Clyde M. Johnson, 38, onetime public enemy No. 1 who shot it out with the FBI in Indianapolis in 1949, was captured along the rocky shore—cowering, shivering and up to his waist in the water.

The convicts were on a trash-burning detail with guard Harold Miller outside the prison walls. Suddenly they turned on him. One produced a knife. They threatened to kill him and then bound and gagged him.

The break was discovered at 3:40 p.m. when Miller and

Would Favor Withdrawal Of Some Nationalists if Cease Fire Is Effective

Washington—U.S.—Secretary of State Dulles said today there could be important changes in U.S. policy as to the defense of Quemoy if there were some "give" by the Chinese communists.

If there was a dependable cease-fire in the Formosa area, Dulles said, the United States would favor withdrawal of at least some of the large Chinese nationalist forces on the offshore islands.

Dulles said the United States acquiesced in Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's reinforcement of the islands in the first place but considered it a foolish step.

At a news conference Dulles also said that the United States thought any renunciation of force in the Formosa region should apply not only to Communist China but also to the nationalist government.

He argued this would be a fair arrangement and that it would be wrong to ask the Reds alone to renounce force.

Better Outlook
In the last two weeks the prospects for a peaceful outcome of the Formosa crisis have improved, Dulles said.

He attributed this to some slight tendency toward stabilization of the contending forces in the Quemoy region and to his feeling that there is now less chance of hostilities spreading into a bigger war.

Asked how an agreement to renounce force would affect Chiang's policy of fighting his way back to the Chinese mainland, Dulles said Chiang's return would seem to depend on what happens inside communist China.

For example, he argued, should a Hungarian-type uprising come about inside mainland China, it might lead to Chiang's return.

Dulles warned the communists—Soviet and Chinese alike—against expecting any change in U.S. policy because of public criticism of this country's backing for Chiang's defense of Quemoy.

He took that line when asked whether he felt that there is, as Vice President Nixon has charged, any subordinate in the state department.

Soviet Nuclear Blast Detected By Tokyo Station

Tokyo—U.S.—The Tokyo meteorological station has detected what it believes was a Soviet nuclear explosion. It would be the first since March 21, when the Russians announced they were suspending tests.

A meteorological station spokesman said abnormal atmospheric pressures were felt throughout Japan about 10 p.m. Tuesday (7 a.m. CST). These indicated an explosion in the megaton (million tons of TNT) class, he said.

The waves came from north-northwest of Japan but the exact location of origin could not be fixed.

When the Russians announced in March they were suspending nuclear tests, they reserved the right to start them up again if other governments continued theirs.

On Sept. 18 Moscow radio warned that the Soviet Union would resume weapons tests.

Reaffirms Japanese Friendship With U.S.

Tokyo—U.S.—Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi in a major policy speech before parliament today reaffirmed Japan's friendship with the United States.

Speaking in the midst of winds expected to prevent propaganda pressure from frost tonight although temperatures over much of the Soviet Union because of state will be in low 30s. High American military bases in Japan, Kishi told the diet: low 50s southeast.

"Cooperation with free nations, especially the United States, is the keynote of Japan's foreign policy."

At the same time the premier called for a settlement of the Japan-red China trade feud. He stressed that Japan will not recognize Peiping but both countries could gain mutual benefits through trade and cultural exchange.

4 Little Rock High Schools Closed After Court Order

No Classes At Norfolk

Virginia Governor Seeks Opening on Segregated Basis

Richmond, Va.—U.S.—Restless students, police patrols, cancelled football games and closed door emergency sessions of city and state officials marked a tense beginning yesterday to a period closing for six Norfolk schools.

The six, three senior high and three junior high facilities with an enrollment of 10,000, were ordered shut down Saturday by Gov. J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., while he considers possible ways of restoring their operation on a segregated basis.

Almond acted within the authority of the state's resistance to racial integration statutes. The shutdown came after the city school board enrolled 17 Negro children in compliance with a federal court order.

No major disturbances were reported at any of the schools although police already on duty at vital points kept students from gathering on Granby High school grounds during the afternoon.

City fathers, school trustees and legislators representing the city huddled for 90 minutes behind closed doors. They broke up without comment.

Later, after a separate, 45-minute meeting of the school board, School Supt. J. J. Brewbaker served notice the three senior high schools had suspended fall football programs indefinitely.

Signs on Campuses Blame Action by U. S. Government

Little Rock, Ark.—U.S.—The four Little Rock high schools remained closed today and signs were placed on the campus which read: "This school closed by order of the federal government."

The move to open the high schools as private but segregated institutions was halted officially at 8 a.m. when Dr. T. J. Roney, head of the operating corporation, declared a court injunction made it impossible.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus commented: "As long as the people stand firm, a way will be found to preserve our traditions and educate our children."

275 Foundlings Make Safe Trip To New Hospital

New York—U.S.—A priest recited "God's blessing for a safe journey." Then the procession started.

The tiniest infants, some only two weeks old, led the march. They were carried, of course.

Strung out behind them were 275 children, carried, wheeled and toddling. A 2-year-old brought up the rear.

They were accompanied by nurses, Sisters of Charity and volunteers.

Police watched the moment carefully. Spectators lining the sidewalks cheered. Some applauded. Some cried a little.

Within an hour after they started the children—foundlings of New York City—completed a transfer into the new, $10 million air-conditioned New York Foundling hospital Monday.

It is one block from the old hospital, which is to be demolished.

U. S. Employment Picture Brightens

Washington—U.S.—For the first time in two years, the number of the nation's major job areas reporting improved employment outnumbered those showing increases in joblessness.

The labor department announced this yesterday in reporting that the job picture improved during the late summer in all but a few of the nation's chief labor and production centers.

Badly Smashed Autos Lie upended in a ditch after they were involved in a collision on Highway 83 near Grayslake, Ill., Monday night. All six occupants in two cars perished. The accident was described by police as one of the worst ever reported in the area.

Grayslake is about 40 miles northwest of Chicago. Among the dead was John R. Plunkett, 38, chief of the volunteer fire department at Trevor, a Kenosha county community.

DeGaulle, Cabinet Plan Birth of Fifth Republic

Government's First Task Will be To Bid Farewell to Guinea Which Rejected New French Constitution

Paris — (AP) — Premier de Gaulle convenes his cabinet today to plan the birth of the fifth republic and a new world wide French community, or commonwealth.

The present government's first task will be to wish farewell and good luck to French Guinea. The rain-swept West African coastal area was the only segment of the French new constitution in the referendum Sunday.

In Conakry, capital of Guinea, the special French emissary, Jean Risterucci, announced that sovereignty would be officially transferred to Guinea at midnight to night. With the transfer goes an end of French economic aid to the underdeveloped area.

Guinean Premier Sekou Toure called the territory's assembly to meet Thursday. The assembly is expected to decree itself a constitutional convention or constituent assembly and begin drafting the basic charter for a new African Negro republic.

Referendum Returns — Referendum returns from other overseas areas of the French union still were trickling in. Except for Guinea, the story was the same overseas and in France—heavy majorities for the new constitution and indirectly for de Gaulle personally.

With this backing the World war II hero prepared to proclaim the fifth republic on Sunday. He will have virtually absolute powers for the next four months while launching the republic.

One of the first tasks is to write an electoral law for voting on a new French assembly, probably late in November. The assembly members in turn will help elect the president. They will become members of the presidential electoral college along with mayors and members of local department (county) councils. No one doubts that de Gaulle will become the new president, with the first strong executive powers in France since Louis Napoleon in 1870.

Immediate Task — Another immediate task is to end the 4-year-old Algerian rebellion. De Gaulle plans to fly to Algeria Thursday. He may finally pull back the veil which so far has shrouded his intentions for the troubled North African territory.

Some reliable sources predict de Gaulle will seek some middle ground between the full independence demanded by nationalist rebels and the full integration of Algeria with France demanded by die-hard European settlers there.

Quiz Winners Say They Were Never Helped

New York — (AP) — Two big money winners on the television quiz "21" say they were never aided in answering questions.

David Mayer, a psychologist who won $47,500, and Robert Leicester, a teacher who won $48,500, said yesterday that as far as they knew the NBC show was completely honest.

They talked with newsmen after being questioned at the Manhattan district attorney's office.

Two Say 'Yes' — Two other former contestants, Herbert Stempel and James Snodgrass, have said they received help on the program.

A grand jury is investigating alleged irregularities on some television quiz shows. "The whole thing seems incredible," Leicester told reporters. He said he never received so much as a hint to correct answers.

Mayer also said he never received answers in advance. He knew of no coaching of other contestants, he said.

Harold Craig, who picked up $106,000 on the show before his elimination by Mayer, will appear later this week before the grand jury. He was questioned Saturday by the district attorney.

Adenauer in Berlin For Bundestag Session — Berlin — (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer arrived in Berlin today for a meeting of the West German parliament behind the Iron Curtain.

The West German parliament moves to Berlin once or twice a year for its sessions to give moral support to West Berliners living 110 miles inside communist Eastern Germany.

Adenauer was met at Tempelhof airport by West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt. Adenauer told the welcoming party he hoped the Bundestag session in Berlin would illustrate the determination of Germans to reunite their country.

Seek Parents of Infant Left in Care of Bachelor

Ely, Nev. — (AP) — Bachelor James Shelton, armed with plenty of formula and diapers, was headed for Reno today, hoping to find the parents of a 2-month-old premature infant.

Shelton became separated from the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Williams of Slick Rock, Colo., Sunday night near Eureka, Utah.

Yesterday morning he faced the frightening job of feeding the crying baby, which needed a special formula, and the problem of changing diapers.

The infant's plight turned into a 3-state alarm when Shelton walked into a Eureka cafe. A quick call was put into the Cortez, Colo., hospital for the formula—a special meat base preparation. The child had been released from the hospital only two days earlier.

After feeding and changing the baby, Shelton waited 15 hours in Eureka for the Williams to return. They had been in a 2-car caravan and gave Shelton the baby, he said, because their car was loaded with household goods.

Shelton arrived here last night and told Pine county deputy Sheriff Del Hofhines he intended to look for the parents in Reno. If they weren't there, he planned to leave for Lakeview, Ore., and leave the child with unidentified relatives of the Williams.

Deputy Hofhines said the baby appeared to be satisfied after being changed and fed again.

Officers said Shelton and Williams were both miners and planned to seek work in Lakeview. The parents have not been heard from.

Mayor Suspends Force But Nobody Obeys Him

Aurora Council Passes Resolution; Can't Condone Executive's Action

Aurora, Ill. — (AP) — Mayor Paul Egan suspended Aurora's entire 68-man police force last night and called on the citizenry to make arrests when laws are violated. But nobody obeyed him, including the cops.

The policemen, who have seen more than 10 police chiefs come and go during Egan's 4½-year tenure, carried on as usual. "Nobody's paying any attention to him," one said.

The city council, by a vote of 4-1 passed a resolution saying it could not condone Egan's actions. Egan cast the lone dissenting vote.

Furthermore, said the council resolution, it must refuse to go along with the mayor's order firing police Chief Donald Curran. The ouster was for personal reasons, the resolution read.

It was the Curran episode that led to Egan's latest edict. Failure to crack down on gambling especially bingo was the reason he fired Curran, Egan said.

But Curran wouldn't go. In fact, he told the police force not to obey any Egan order unless it was approved by Curran or the corporation counsel.

Egan retaliated. "Because the men of the police department are in open, defiant insubordination," read an Egan proclamation, "Aurora is in a state of emergency."

"This mutinous action of revolutionary individuals makes it imperative I act and suspend all members of the police force."

Swear Out Warrants — Then he called on the 55,000 residents of this northern Illinois city to make complaints or swear out warrants for any violations of the law.

Some 500 of those residents crowded into the council chambers. Most of them wanted to protest the clamp down on bingo and raffles.

Temper flared, with the mayor pounding the gavel, ordering but unable to succeed in ousting one of the spectators, and arguing over the right of Commissioner William Konrad in sitting on the council.

To no avail. The resolution passed and Curran is still chief. To everyone but Egan, that is.

Emergency Board Approves Purchase Of Geiger Counters — Madison — (AP) — An appropriation of $5,000 to purchase geiger counters was approved by the state emergency board Monday after members were told there were 188 accidents involving vehicles carrying radioactive material in the last two years. None was in Wisconsin.

The request for the 83 counters was made by the Wisconsin civil defense office. The federal government will match the amount.

William L. Lea, radiology officer of the state office, said without the detection equipment, officers might not even know any radioactive material was present.

The sets will be used by the state traffic patrol.

Seventh Fleet Has New Commander

Taipei — (AP) — Vice Adm. Frederick N. Kivette took command of the Seventh fleet today at ceremonies aboard the carrier Midway. The fleet guards Formosa Strait.

He relieved Vice Adm. Wallace M. Beakley, who will become deputy chief of naval operations and readiness, Washington, D. C.

Kivette, whose last post was assistant chief of naval operations for air in Washington, is a native of Boise, Idaho. In 1954 he commanded the former Formosa patrol, now known as the Taiwan patrol and Task Force 72.

The Seventh fleet is rated the most powerful single naval force operating in the world. It has more than 125 ships, including six aircraft carriers and more than 600 aircraft.

Award Three Contracts For Bong Field Work — Madison — (AP) — Gov. Vernon Thomson announced Monday the awarding of three contracts totaling $1,924,868 for work at Bong Air Force base at Kansasville.

The contracts: H. Turner and Sons, Boscobel, $1,013,869, for storm and sanitary sewers, water mains and curb and gutter.

C and C Construction company, Inc., Fort Wayne, Ind., $808,498, water distribution system.

L. E. Myers company, Chicago, $102,500, for electric transmission lines.

Democratic Party in Red for Primary Costs — Madison — (AP) — The Democratic Party of Wisconsin reported to the secretary of state that in the primary election it received $7,002 and spent $13,992 on behalf of Democratic candidates and in operating the party headquarters. It said it owes $6,145.

The Nelson for Governor Club of Milwaukee County, supporting the candidacy of Democrat Gaylord Nelson for governor, reported it received $2,923, spent $2,652 and owes $226.

Recommendation on Keeping $77 Bonus For State Employees

Madison — (AP) — The state emergency board Monday received a recommendation that the state employees' monthly bonus remain at $77 for the 3-month period starting Oct. 1.

The state board of personnel said there has been no change in the cost-of-living index compiled by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Predict Rapid Rebound From Recession

Business to Stay Strong Into Yule Season, Weeks Says

Philadelphia — (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Weeks predicted today a rapid rebound from recession will keep business strong throughout the autumn and into the Christmas shopping season.

"The outlook for continuing recovery is bright—the brightest yet this year," Weeks said in a speech prepared for the convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists.

Blends Politics — The cabinet officer blended politics with his economics in a glowing account of "wise government leadership" which he said has helped restore public confidence and has "confounded the carping critics and the faint hearts."

Plans reported by industrial firms to speed up their investment in new plants and machinery, along with other factors, "point to a marked rise in national output and income" for the rest of the year, Weeks said.

But he cautioned that advocates of what he called "socialist witchcraft" and "sky's-the-limit government spending" could overburden the economy with debt, inflation and high taxes.

"Spendthrift government undermines business confidence," Weeks said. "An eventual resulting increase in taxes would weaken business incentive, cut down take-home pay and dry up customer purchasing power."

Resist Spending — He urged the businessmen to resist new spending proposals.

Referring to recession spending, Weeks applauded President Eisenhower for his "bold refusal . . . to give way to panic panaceas." This firmness, and the measures taken by business itself, contributed much to halting the business slump, Weeks said.

But congress, he added, voted appropriations totaling $5 billion more than Eisenhower asked.

Chance for 'Tight Money' Action Seen in Interest Hike

Short Term Borrowing Rate Means Blue Chip Corporations Pay More

Washington — (AP) — The possibility of another "tight money" action by the federal reserve board was increased today by a sharp rise in the interest rate on short term borrowings.

The treasury announced last night the government will pay an average interest rate of 2.920 per cent for the privilege of borrowing $1,800,000,000 for three months.

Steep Rise — This marked an unusually steep rise over the 2.511 per cent which lenders demanded a week ago. Historically it's a pretty high rate to charge the nation's best credit risk for short term money. It means all other borrowers, including blue chip corporations, are paying a good deal more.

The increase also means the interest rate on 90-day treasury bills is now far out of line with the federal reserve board's 2 per cent discount rate—the interest rate banks must pay for money borrowed from the reserve system.

In recent years, the discount rate invariably has been raised in circumstances such as these. The reserve board normally tries to keep the discount rate above the bill rate. This is to discourage banks from borrowing from the federal reserve and reinvesting in treasury bills.

The current spread between the bill rate and the lower discount rate is greater than at any time in the past five years.

On Aug. 14, the federal reserve board permitted the San Francisco reserve bank to raise its discount rate to 2 per cent from 1½ per cent. This increase, later adopted by the other 11 reserve banks, signaled a reversal of the board's recession policy of easing credit.

An increase in the discount rate usually produces an upward movement of all interest rates.

Rejects Protest — Tokyo — (AP) — Red China today rejected a British protest on a 12-mile territorial waters limit proclaimed by the communist regime. It said the note was an "unreasonable intervention" in China's sovereignty.

Auto Workers Strike At La Crosse Plant — La Crosse — (AP) — Local 395 of the United Auto Workers went on strike Monday against the Northern Engraving and Manufacturing company.

Some 350 workers were idled by the strike, which followed a breakdown of negotiations between the union and the firm. The old 3-year contract expired June 30.

Meanwhile a 30-day contract extension kept workers on the job at the Electric Auto Line company. The firm's old contract with UAW Local 396 expires today.

Anti-Ike Opinions Grow Survey Finds

BY SAMUEL LUBELL

In my travels around the country talking to typical voters in recent weeks, the thing that has impressed me most is the strange new mood that grips the American public.

This mood is unlike anything I encountered in my election tours in 1952, 1954 or 1956. Yet it could prove more important than the actual results of this November's voting. For it may foreshadow an historic turn in the American temperament.

Outwardly the country basks in all the appearances of a land flowing with milk and contentment. True, in northern Minnesota farmers complained a cool summer slowed the ripening of the corn and that dry weather parched many fields. But generally through the midwest the prospects are for bumper crops. As one Iowa farmer's wife exclaimed jubilantly, "Even the weeds are growing better than ever!"

Similarly in the cities, although more than 4,000,000 workers are drawing unemployment pay, the overwhelming majority of people seem as well off or better off than ever. In many of the same neighborhoods I visited in previous years, more homes sport a new coat of paint; two cars crowd many garages and even swimming pools have been erected in back yards.

This is the second in a series of pre-election articles by Samuel Lubell, called a "1-man public opinion pollster." The series throughout the month of October, will attempt to report on what voters in key areas across the nation are thinking.

But when one digs beneath this exterior of material prosperity, one finds a deep uneasiness. This uneasiness has a curious quality. It is not a fretting over something bad that has already happened. Mainly, it reflects an anxiety over impending disaster, a sense that as a nation we are beset by problems which are slipping beyond our control.

Several Issues

Sometimes it is the segregation struggle about which people ask, "Where will it end?" At other times it is the continued rise in taxes or living costs that voters point to and demand, "When will someone do something about that?"

But the deepest concern is voiced over the trend of events abroad. Again and again in recent weeks, people have begun by saying, "Those islands off China are worthless" and then have gone on to add "but we can't give them up. We have to make a stand somewhere."

In short, on a surprisingly wide range of problems, much of the public has the feeling that "We're being backed into a corner we can't get out of."

Some persons have reacted by shutting their ears to what they do not like to hear. Asked about the China crisis, one widow in South Bend replied, "If it is unpleasant, I don't read about it."

But others — in what marks a significant change of attitude from two years ago — are looking to Washington for more vigorous leadership. In 1956 and 1954 many persons interviewed would praise the president for "his calm" and because "he doesn't jump" in emergencies. Today, the tenor of comment runs, "We've got to stop drifting." Or, "We need more positive action."

Democratic Shift

In Minneapolis, for example, the wife of a 32-year-old truck driver who voted for Eisenhower both times, was shifting Democratic because, "It's terrible, Eisenhower just sitting there and letting prices go up month after month. How can you bring up a family if you don't know what anything will cost a year from now?"

The question, "Who is running the country?" is being asked not only by partisan Democrats but by many one-time Eisenhower supporters. Nor is the question raised in personal ill will. Generally, Eisenhower is praised as "real nice," as "honest" and as "a fine family man." Often he is defended by arguments that "a president doesn't have it all his way" or, "the job is too big for any man. It's killing him."

But along with such expressions of sympathy runs a deep concern that Eisenhower may no longer be the master of the White House. "He isn't president. His secretary is," remarked one unemployed auto worker in South Bend. Other comments in this vein have been, "He's only a military man." Or, "He's getting too old." Or, "he's a fine man but can't seem to make decisions."

Feeling Sinks in

How deep this feeling has sunk could be seen in the reaction to the Lebanon and Flag Raisers at Appleton High school this year are Sue Fulton and Bob Roemer. The honor is conferred each year upon two senior students by their classmates.

China crises. One common response given me was, "What he's done is fine, but he should have acted earlier."

In St. Paul, a chemical engineer, when asked if Eisenhower was right in deciding to defend Quemoy and Matsu, replied, "To tell you the truth, I don't care where he takes a stand. I'm happy he did something. I was getting to feel he had lost his grip and growing desire for more vigorous leadership."

On the issue of war and peace the public still holds a fervent confidence in the president. Many feel as one Ohio cab driver put it, "As soon as Eisenhower is out of there we will be at war." But this is almost the only problem on which the public shares a warm, emotional attachment to the president. Particularly on economic issues, people feel "he never even talks to us. We don't know what he thinks."

Can Eisenhower fill this void? His leadership ability will hinge not only on his ability to lead but on his ability to work with the Republican prospects in No-vember and in 1960 but the Helms and Barbara Turk pre-sentation of the Eisenhower administration in the two Jack Swanson and Paul Heid in "Wild Bill Hickup."

Scout Officials Briefed on New Program

Valley Boy Scout council executives are attending a briefing on a new explorer program in Green Bay today, Rudy Vogt, chairman of the planning committee, reports.

Attending are Dwight Don-elson, council executive, and Fred Sordahl, William Weed-man, and Mahlon Butz, dis-trict executives.

The new explorer program will be open to teenage boys at least 14 years old, Vogt said. Boys will have a choice of remaining in the scouts or joining an explorer post.

Explorer posts will be designated by their unit special-ty—such as zoology, radio, or agriculture, Vogt stated. The program starts Jan. 1.

The program is based on a national survey of what teen-age boys want in exploring. Many of the programs will be tailored toward future voca-tional or professional goals. A "new look" uniform will be worn by the explorers, Vogt revealed. Although the forest green uniform will continue for official functions, an optional outfit of blue sport coat, white shirt, maroon tie and gray slacks will be added for informal affairs.

Dorothy Metko, Barbara Dhein, Barbara Jones, Pat Lawless and Joan Jockman. Miss Ruth McKennan, head of the speech department, is director of the show working with Jack Burroughs, stage director in charge of produc-tion are assisting in Working stage and on properties and are Judy Rammer, Judy Ma-nier, Kathy Hoefel, Barbara Notebaart, Barbara Larsen, make-up crew.

Court Breaks Three Historic Precedents

Decides States Can't Lease Public Schools To Private Groups

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington — The supreme court has just astonished many of the lawyers of the nation by breaking three historic precedents in judicial procedure:

1. The court has, in effect, decided in advance a case not yet argued before it and which Lawrence still is in process of being contested in a lower court.
2. The court now asserts that it made a certain statement in its 1954 decision about desegregation, but no such statement can be found by examining the text of the original decision.
3. The court has, in effect, affixed the signature of three justices to an opinion rendered in 1954, the argument of which these new justices never themselves heard and his two charges hadn't returned from their chore. About 15 minutes later Miller was found in bushes, just below some guards' houses on the southeast corner of Alcatraz.

Siren Sounded
News of the break was sounded by the rarely-heard whine of the prison siren. Associate Warden Joseph Lattimer alerted the FBI, the coast guard and San Francisco police.

Johnson was spotted through the fog by a sharp-eyed coast guard lookout on a patrol craft circling the island. The crew kept the fugitive in sight until prison guards reached him. Johnson surrendered meekly.

When the two convicts turned on Miller, they told him they would escape The Rock on a boat. Coast guard headquarters reported there were no boats anywhere near the island.

It was considered extremely unlikely that Burgett could swim the 1½ miles to the necklace of lights on San Francisco's Marina shore. The tide was moving out of the Golden Gate at 3½ miles an hour. The water was cold—between 50 and 55 degrees. He had 40 minutes in which to find a good hiding place.

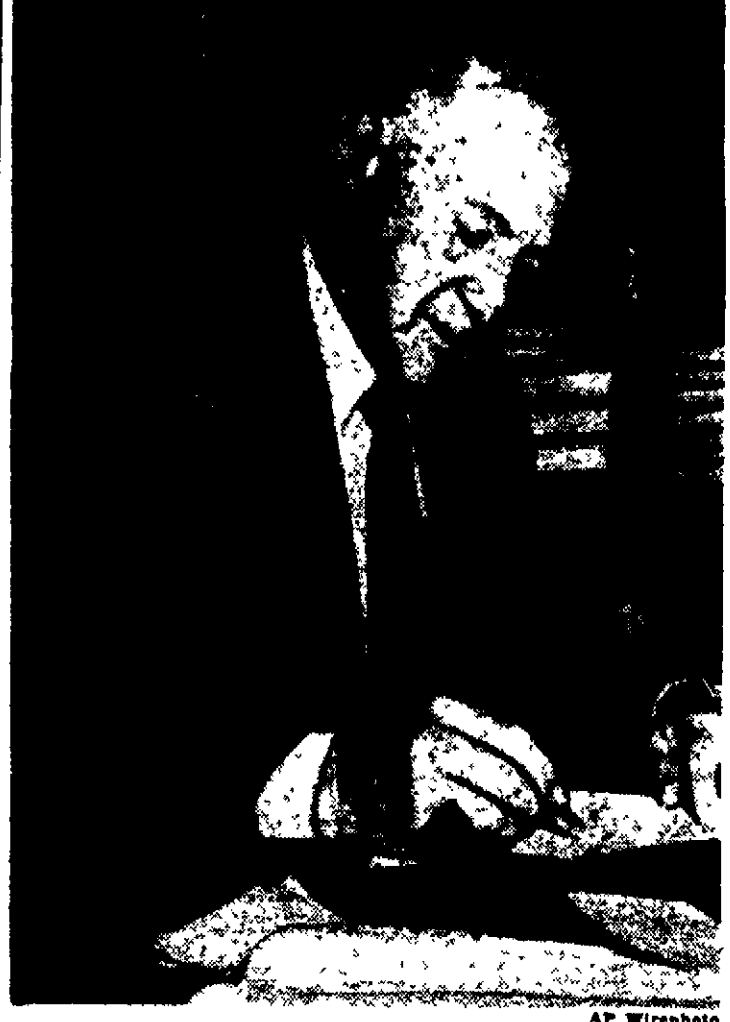

in its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws. The right of a student not to be segregated on racial grounds in schools so maintained is indeed so fundamental and pervasive that it is embraced in the concept of due process of law.

No Citation
No citation from any previous decision is given by the court to support this doctrine except Bolling versus Sharpe, which was a District of Columbia case involving public schools, also decided on May 17, 1954, and there was no issue in that case of evasion or subterfuge or of any substitute arrangement.

What is even more amazing is that, where a citation of a previous case is given to support the new doctrine, there has actually been a circumvention in that same case with the approval of the supreme court itself.

But in support of this, the court cited its own decision in the Girard College case of 1957, wherein desegregation was ordered because the City of Philadelphia—a state agency—was the trustee under an old will providing that only white male orphans should be admitted. To get around the decision, a city court in Philadelphia afterwards appointed private trustees and the college continues now on a segregated basis. This was, of course, a circumvention and Pennsylvania's highest court rightly approved it in 1958. Last June the supreme court refused to grant a writ to permit any review of this second case, so, for all practical purposes, the circumvention now has been approved by the highest court in the land which on Monday of this week condemned as illegal all subterfuges and evasions in continuing any segregation which had been previously ordered discontinued.

that he was as ready as President Eisenhower to go anywhere and meet anyone in the interest of peace.

Eisenhower has repeatedly said that is his attitude. Meeting Not Likely Dulles seemed, however, to rule out a meeting with Chou under present circumstances. He said that a session of foreign ministers might sharpen the crisis by focusing need for agreement.

The ambassadorial talks at Warsaw can go on indefinitely. Dulles did not predict those talks would lead to some agreement with the Chinese. He thought that the ultimate result of the diplomatic contacts at Warsaw and the limited military conflict at Quemoy might simply be a de facto cease fire. If the situation suddenly worsened, he said, the United States could go to the United Nations.

Dulles confirmed that Chinese nationalist fighter planes are using sidewinder air-to-air missiles against communist aircraft in the Formosa area. But he rejected a red Chinese complaint that this somehow upsets the situation in relation to the Warsaw talks. He said that release of the missiles to the nationalists by the United States had nothing to do with the Warsaw talks.

Question of Troops
Dulles' talk of possible changes in United States policy if there was peace in the Formosa area was not detailed, but in question and answer exchange seemed to be related to reducing or removing Chiang's forces from the offshore islands and to the problem of renouncing force.

He said it would be possible to get a dependable cease fire agreement with the communists by backing it up with some kind of sanctions which other countries could impose if the reds defaulted. He has tentatively discussed this and other ideas with 15 or 20 foreign ministers, Dulles said.

Dulles was asked whether he thought it was sound now to arrange for withdrawal of nationalist forces from the offshore islands.

That all depends on the circumstances, he said. The United States would never agree to a retreat under fire, Dulles said, because of the probable impact such an action would have on other peoples and other countries as well as the morale of nationalist China.

4 High Schools At Little Rock Stay Closed high were at the school this morning when Raney called off the opening.

Blames Government
Raney issued a statement which said in part:

"Through the concerted efforts of the government of the United States and the NAACP, the Little Rock Private School corporation has now been enjoined and prohibited from operating . . . (the) high schools."

He said the government and the NAACP must take full responsibility for the lack of educational facilities for the students and added "it is quite evident that they are ready to sacrifice the educational opportunity of 4,000 students to satisfy their consuming desire to mix the races in our school, public or private."

Raney would not answer questions nor would he say what the corporation planned to do next.

Shortly after Raney read a statement to newsmen, a tall bespectacled school guard tried to keep the 4 by 6 foot sign from being placed on the Central campus.

Sign Erected

A brief struggle ensued and the workman who tried to erect the sign started to leave but an employee of Central came out and told the guard "he is supposed to put it up."

The sign was replaced on the campus. The only girl among the few students who appeared at Central stood in the rain for a while then departed saying "I think it's terrible. We just want to go to school."

Herschel Goodman, one of the corporation directors, said "it's like a chess game. We made our move. They made theirs. Now all we can do is wait."

Federal marshals clouded the plan to reopen the schools as private segregated institutions when they fanned out over the city last night serving scores of persons with copies of a restraining order.

Officials, buffeted between federal and state pressure and momentarily in complete

U. S. Traffic Toll May Drop by 2,000 or More

But Nation's Drivers Must Maintain The Same Steady Rate of Improvement

Chicago — The nation's traffic death toll for 1958, the national safety council said today, may be 2,000 less than last year and the lowest since 1954.

But, the council warned, that goal could be reached only if the same rate of improvement in cutting the traffic toll is maintained in the last quarter of the year.

The council said there were 22,880 deaths on the highways in the first eight months this year, 6 per cent below the same period last year and representing a saving of 1,500 lives.

Same Rate
"If the same rate of improvement can be maintained the rest of the year," the council said, "the highway death toll for 1958 will be at least 2,000 below the 1957 total of 38,500."

"But it won't be easy. The most hazardous months of the year are ahead, months of added darkness and of treacherous road and weather conditions."

"The goal can be achieved, however, if drivers are willing to put forth a little extra ef-

Dayton, Ohio.—(AP)—Service station attendant Max Stapleton is not a man to let disaster strike twice.

A week ago, he was robbed of $70. Yesterday, the same man walked up to Stapleton's station to find that Stapleton (1) had recognized him, (2) was barricaded in the back room, and (3) was armed with a .38 caliber revolver.

The holdup man emptied his gun into the door of the back room. On the other side, Stapleton emptied his gun right back. Despite all the lead flying around, no one apparently got hit.

When the smoke cleared, Stapleton told police, he could hear the holdup man opening the cash register. But Stapleton was ahead of him there, too. It was empty.

City Budget Lacks Sufficient Data, Tax Analyst Tells Taxpayer Group

Governments Have to be Watched or They'll Give People More Than They Want, He Says

More data should be furnished aldermen and the public in drafting and presenting the city budget, Bernard C. Sullivan told Appleton Taxpayers association Monday at Stroebe Island Haven.

Sullivan, tax analyst for Public Expenditure Survey of Wisconsin, gave his views in discussing a study of Appleton budgeting methods he recently completed.

The occasion was the first big membership meeting of the 15-week-old association. Forty-six attended to vote approval of bylaws.

"Governments are set up to do things for people and unless they are watched carefully they end up doing more than the people want or need and at a price people find hard to pay," Sullivan said.

Nothing Serious Government has so many activities it is foolhardy, he said, for politicians to attempt to do so without careful and detailed planning and wide open reporting to the public.

Sullivan said his brief examination of city financial procedure had uncovered no weaknesses that could not be easily corrected.

These are the conclusions of his 8-page report:

"The Appleton budget, as presented to the public and city council, would be greatly improved if additional detail to permit more adequate analysis of proposed appropriations was presented.

"Considerable improvement could and should be made by including in the budget document more of the data submitted by departments when requesting appropriations.

"A brief budget message outlining budget policy and explaining major increases or decreases should be made part of the budget document.

"The budget document should also include financial background information required by state law.

"The budget summary should present more information concerning revenues, es-

Singler Rakes Administration

New London — Milo Singler, Shiocott, Democratic candidate for congress from the Eighth district, raked the administration for its handling of the St. Lawrence waterway development when he addressed the Rotary club Monday night.

"The maximum trade potential of the St. Lawrence seaway may not be realized for many years because of the strained relations which have developed between the United States and Canada under this administration," he said.

Singler said this tension was caused by the administration's move to abandon the corps of army engineers' plan for the Columbia river basin, forcing Canada to act unilaterally and he said the election of the conservative party in Canada was the cause of the administration's conflict with Canada over trade policies.

pecially information concerning the effect of the proposed budget on the tax rate.

"Although inclusion in the budget of additional detail available under present accounting procedures would result in a markedly improved budget and should be done with the 1959 budget, a revision of the classification of accounts should be undertaken to provide for the presentation of more detailed budgets in the future."

(Budget requests must be presented to the finance committee before Oct. 9. Hearings start Monday night, Oct. 20.)

Broehm Cooperative

"City hall," said Harley O. Barney, association vice president in a discussion period after Sullivan's report, "apparently will welcome constructive criticism."

"I think it is understood," Pres. Gregory Schulte said, "that we are not out to stick knives in anyone, but that we do mean business."

Several association officers said they had received excellent cooperation from City Clerk - Comptroller Broehm.

It was said the association would try to obtain a first copy of the 1959 budget draft, study it and, if need be, name a spokesman to present its views to the council.

Alois C. Fischer, Fifteenth ward county board supervisor, made a plea for assistance in stopping the county highway committee from buying a hot mix asphalt plant "to compete with county businessmen."

A move in that direction was halted earlier, he said, but his reports have it that the highway committee is inspecting hot mix plants again. Such a move, he said, would cost the county at least $192,000, besides putting it in competition with contractors.

Synod Teachers Set Convention

About 160 Will Attend Sessions at St. Paul School

About 160 teachers from Wisconsin synod Lutheran schools in northern Wisconsin will attend the annual Winnebago Teachers conference Thursday and Friday in Appleton. Sessions will be held at St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church and school.

All Wisconsin synod schools will be closed for the two days. In Appleton they are St. Paul, St. Matthew and Fox Valley Lutheran High school.

The conference will open at 9 o'clock Thursday morning with an address by the Rev. Ardin D. Laper, Wautoma, and the morning will be centered about workshops on the teaching of Bible lessons on various grade levels. Afternoon sessions will be devoted to discussions on physical education, playground supervision and church music.

Friday morning workshops will be on projectors as teaching tools, purposeful daily devotions and current synodical developments while the afternoon will cover modern trends in grading and a review of the two days work.

Miss Martha Sorensen, director of elementary education in Appleton public schools, will speak on grading trends.

VNA Mothers Class

Miss Inez Davis, nurse director, will discuss "Hygiene of Pregnancy" during the Visiting Nurse association class for expectant mothers at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon at the VNA house. The class is the beginning of a new series of eight weekly sessions.

Who Would Tax the Auto?

The politicians are busy flailing each other with accusations about plans to increase the tax on automobiles.

Gaylord Nelson, the Democratic candidate for governor, recently claimed that Gov. Thomson if reelected would impose a higher registration fee on the motor vehicle.

But the governor was reading the papers. Not at all, said he. It was Mayor Zeidler of Milwaukee, Mr. Nelson's friend, who wanted to increase the taxation of motor vehicles. We don't know what Zeidler responded. Probably nothing. He isn't running for office just now and can afford the luxury of reading the political pronouncements without summoning his stenographer to get out denials forthwith.

In point of fact, however, and purely in the interests of an accurate historical narrative, it ought to be pointed out that Zeidler didn't exactly propose to do such a thing either. He thought, at one time, that somebody else should do it. Notably the state legislature, which he hoped would funnel back into his city treasury for his disbursement of the proceeds resulting.

What all this has seemed to establish, for this season at any rate, is that the motor vehicle owner is a kind of privileged fellow, as far as tax vulnerability goes.

The earner of an income probably is going to pay more state income taxes, as he already knows if he has troubled to interpret the evidence at hand.

The owner of a house or a farm probably will pay more property taxes, if he has paid the slightest heed to what has been happening in school enrollments, or other integral phases of local government spending liability.

The owner of all other kinds of personal property — cows, jewelry, store stocks, pleasure boats, office furniture or whatever — will pay more personal property tax as the general property tax trend continues inevitably upward.

But we have promised the owner of a motor vehicle immunity. He stands as a remarkable specimen, a monument to the morbidly selective cowardice of our politicians.

Firm Hand in London

Americans may have snickered a bit when the news came of race riots in England, a land long accustomed to tolerance of color and creed, at least in the mother country. But a glance at the sentences dealt out to the white offenders should be noted in every juvenile court in our nation.

The Notting Hill district riots were aimed mostly at West Indian Negroes who have flocked to London during the last 10 years for better pay and living conditions. Legally they are British citizens. As long as jobs were plentiful and the Negroes were not, white British were magnanimous. But when a slight recession threw the new arrivals on relief and some districts were crowded with people of different customs and habits as well as color, mutterings began.

The actual rioting was caused by Teddy Boys, England's variety of hoods, who swarmed into the Notting Hill district one night armed with iron bars, crank handles and table legs. Scores of Negroes — male, female and children — were beaten. Nine young white men were arrested and put on trial.

Justice Cyril Salmon did not put the boys on probation. He paid little attention to the plea that the defenders were merely youngsters of high energy or victims of society. He sentenced each boy to four years in prison and he made his reasons clear.

Everyone, irrespective of the color of their skins, is entitled to walk through our streets in peace with their heads erect, and free from fear. That is a right which these courts will always unfailingly uphold . . . You are entitled to think what you like, however foul your thoughts; to feel what you like, however brutal and debased your emotions; to say what you like, provided you do not infringe on the rights of others . . . But once you translate your dark thoughts and brutal feelings into savage acts such as these, the law will be swift to punish you, the guilty, and to protect your victims.

Too often our juvenile delinquents become themselves the oppressed in the minds of social workers, judges and the public. The fact that their personal or home lives may be appalling does not absolve them of guilt. They are human beings and must be held responsible for their deeds. In several American cities, where some districts are unsafe for people of any color after dark, the principle that Justice Salmon upheld seems to have been forgotten.

There are going to be tremendous problems in most countries of the world because of conflicts between different societies, creeds and races in the next few years. But firmness toward those of any group who break the law has to be a basic principle or civilization will crumble, as T. S. Eliot put it, "not with a bang, but a whimper."

College Boom

This year the warnings of educators that enrollments were going to create crowded college campuses are suddenly coming true. The trend over the last few years has been a gradual but steady climb. This year more than 3,625,000 students have been arriving at colleges around the country. This is a jump of some 5 per cent and the burgeoning freshman classes indicate things to come.

In Wisconsin almost every institution of higher learning has record enrollments. Lawrence and St. Norbert's have the biggest freshman classes in history. All 10 state colleges have more students than even liberal estimates allowed. The University of Wisconsin, both at Milwaukee and Madison, is booming despite fears that the one might detract from the other. The University Extension at Menasha has jumped 30 per cent. And there is nothing in the statistics to show how many high school graduates were turned down because all space was gone.

What Others are Saying
'Right to Work' Legislation
Needed for Industrial Peace

The car industry faces with considerable trepidation this immediate period in which the issue for its unionized workers is to strike or not to strike. There is considerable question on the part of the men themselves whether under present conditions there is economic justification for a strike.

No strike has ever succeeded economically unless its outcome is a permanent improvement. So it is a fair conclusion that no strike is ever justified unless it is undertaken to correct bad conditions, whether these are the physical setup of the job or inadequate return for work performed. Paralysis of the means of living for both management and workers, undertaken to achieve a social theory, cannot be justified.

The economic power in a strike, whether industry-wide or restricted to a single corporation, is the sole basis for compulsory unionism. You can wipe out the arguments that are presented as superfluous. This one contention of economic power is never presented by opponents of the right-to-work laws but it is the real basis of their efforts.

The point is made because the new organization formed to fight right-to-work laws to be voted on by six states in November calls itself the National Council for Industrial Peace. There is peace, to be sure, once you have bludgeoned your opponent into insensibility.

Yet these statutes, preferably as parts of the various Constitutions, state and federal, form the real recipe for industrial peace.

From the record, compulsory unionism has been far more the basic cause of industrial strife since the Wagner act was adopted than any other.

It is a deliberately false accusation that the right-to-work law in any state is in-

Beauty Shop in Operator's Home
Is Business in Residential Area

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Appleton residents (people living in residential areas) are certainly being pushed around. Not only is their property being chopped up, deteriorated, and destroyed for bridges, parks, football fields, etc., but the building inspector is now recommending that beauty parlors be allowed in homes. One might ask just what the building inspector's interpretation of "residence" is.

Why is it that Appleton residents have to be constantly on guard and fighting to protect their homes? Just a few months ago a group of residents had to go to a great deal of trouble and expense to protect their rights as residents by prohibiting a church from being built in their restricted residential area. We might ask just why and how church officials could flaunt an ordinance and build a church under opposition from nearby residents. Didn't they have to get a permit? If not, why not? If so, how was it possible to get one? Who issued it?

I was under the impression that "home" offered more than a place to hang a hat. Home implies a permanency, a place of refuge where affection abounds in security, peace, and privacy. These are privileges a home owner earns in maintaining a home and paying taxes accordingly, and in so doing deserves the respect and consideration of the general public.

Knowing appreciative people have protected home life by zoning specific areas for business and specific areas for residents. Instead of recommending that beauty parlors be allowed in homes, the recommendation should have been to discontinue the allowance of any kind, professional or otherwise, in a residential area. After all, most everyone is a professional of one type or another. You can hardly call an area residential when just next door an insurance agent has his sign in his front yard, and down the street is a photographer, and around the corner a dentist carries on his business in his home. And now beauty parlors. Where will it end?

Public Apathy
Hoffa and Beck

Editor, Post-Crescent:

If, as James Hoffa claims, an effort of Congress to remove the cowardly racketeers, gunmen and thugs from leadership in the big labor unions, will "destroy the labor union movement in America," then the sooner the better. Any institution that depends upon extortion, murder and violence for its continued existence does not deserve to exist.

The brazen gall of Hoffa, Beck and their associates is only exceeded by the weakness of congress, the labor union members and the general public, who have allowed the situation to become as dangerous as it is. An aroused public should support the effort to curb racketeering, not only in labor union circles, but in business and politics as well.

Price Supports
Still Expensive

From The Mobile (Ala.) Register

Farm price-supports are still costing the federal government, and thus ultimately the people, more than a billion dollars a year.

Losses on farm price-support programs in the fiscal year ended last June 30 totaled $1,072,688,000, the department of agriculture reveals.

That was less than the losses of $1,299,477,000 in the preceding fiscal year, but it kept the annual rate well above the billion-dollar mark.

And there is no assurance that a solution to the farm problem is any closer today than it was a year ago or the year before that.

Under the Capitol Dome
Gaylord Nelson Has Good Political Issues

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison—Given the paucity of the materials, Gaylord Nelson is making a good campaign for the governorship.

The evidence is everywhere at hand—in the preoccupation of Gov. Thomson and his staff with what the Democratic nominee is saying and doing, in the attention he is eliciting from the press which in some previous campaigns showed a tendency to write off Democratic challengers, and in the resourcefulness of his selection of topics for campaign debate.

An academic justification for the fuss and bother of campaigning is popular education. When the politicians and political leaders go out on the stump and debate their disagreements about the public record and the public policy, so the classic argument goes, the people are enlightened and are better equipped to perform their parts in a representative government.

It may be doubted that the politicians themselves have any regard for such motives. There is the more elementary and selfish business of hunting up votes. Yet the effect of the Thomson-Nelson clashes in this instance is to illuminate some of the issues in state policy—such as they are—that are difficult to illuminate through ordinary means.

that Gov. Thomson's skirts are clear. He made his pitch for more gravy at the time, but nobody listened to him. The critic may have the strongest doubts that a new governor could do any more, but the matter is worth some public awareness — if only because of the billions of the people's dollars involved.

Perhaps more basic to the Nelson campaign to date is his quarrel about the so-called state debt, through the device of quasi-public building corporation, the while the constitutional law blandly prohibits long-term straight-out bonded debt by the state.

ANOTHER

This issue requires several qualifications, not the least of which is the fact that Democrats generally must strain the credulity of the public when they point with alarm at the idea of public debt. Moreover, as noted here in earlier dispatches, the Democratic candidate is living dangerously with this issue, for if he manages to kill the building corporation device, and is unable to win an amendment of the state constitution, he will stand as the destroyer of a pragmatic method of financing construction which is needed now.

Yet the academician might reason that the issue is a useful one for all of that.

It is a medium of public education, on a question that is very little understood in spite of its importance. The story has been told often enough, in literal and explicit terms in the day to day news dispatches from the capitol over a decade. But now that it has attained the rank of a full-scale argument between two contenders for principal state office it has an understanding it could not otherwise have had. That is one of the purposes of a political campaign, in the idealistic sense.

Sorting Out

Nelson started his drive after the fashion of the amateur on the typewriter. He was hunting and pecking, trying and discarding, depending upon public reaction and possibly, press publicity potential.

Several of his "program papers", as he dubbed them with perhaps unconscious affectation, were on matters so trivial or esoteric that they were abandoned after the flimsiest trial run. But several of them have promised to have some staying power, and these he has exploited with considerable savor and persistence.

It may be doubted, for example, that anyone was really aware before the argument about it that Wisconsin got a curiously small share of the gigantic Eisenhower interstate road building budget, everything considered. In a time when the federal treasury is regarded as a kind of cornucopia for all things involving the human condition, this is probably a legitimate matter of local public debate. The fact is

Tom Sawyer Not
In Connecticut

From The St. Louis Post-Dispatch

One of the well-known Eastern newspapers — we charitably do not say which one it was — carried a 2-column headline: "Birthplace of Tom Sawyer"

Scores High with Tourists

Imagine our astonishment when the dateline turned out to be Hartford, Conn., and the article in reality a descriptive piece about "a large gabled brick house on residential Farmington avenue" in which Mark Twain "achieved his most notable literary production." Now we would not for a moment depreciate the importance of the house where Samuel L. Clemens performed the mechanical labor of writing out the stories of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. It is a cultural monument we hope to see preserved.

But the birthplace of Tom Sawyer? Not in a thousand times ten thousand years. That greatest of all great American boys was not even born at Hannibal, although he and Huck were boys-together there and climbed through the tall grass of Cardiff hill to watch the steam boats come around the bend.

Go west from Hannibal on Highway 24 to Monroe City. Drop down south on the road to Paris, in Monroe county, but turn off on 107 beyond Indian Creek and before you get to Stoutsville. Go about four miles. You are at Florida — Florida, Mo., population 200. There on the north fork of Salt Creek, Little Sam Clemens was born, Nov. 30, 1835. And so was Tom Sawyer.

Cadillac Has New Design

Eldorado Brougham To be Added to Line in Near Future

Completely new concepts of traditional Cadillac engineering and designs are emphasized by the Cadillac Motor Car division of General Motors in its announcement today of 1959 models.

The sweeping elegance of Cadillac's newly created silhouette is more than matched by the surge of the tremendously powerful new engine. This 1959 engine is the result of engineering development based on 45 years of knowledge in the creation of the V-8 type.

New is the completely original engineering design for shock absorbers. The new unit prevents the mixing of air and oil in the cylinder—a heretofore unsolved problem which greatly reduced shock absorber effectiveness. All 1959 Cadillac cars are equipped with these new shock absorbers.

New Model

The 13 models for 1959 include an additional sedan not available last year. It is called the Eldorado brougham, which will make its appearance in the near future but not in the immediate line announced today.

Dramatic styling appears in the exterior design of all models. The forward treatment of the grille and hood emphasize elegance and jewel-like beauty. Artfully

Outstanding in the Cadillac Line for years, the Fleetwood 60 special sedan for 1959 reaches a new degree of celebrated excellence. Thor Chosen as Official Weapon, Report States

New York — The New York Times said Monday the air force's Thor has been chosen over the army's Jupiter as the basic mass-produced intermediate range ballistic missile weapon of the United States.

A dispatch to the newspaper from Dallas, Texas, said authoritative sources disclosed that a decision had been made to turn out two or possibly three squadrons of Jupiters at the most.

The story reported that it was said that all other squadrons of the nuclear armed 1,500-mile range ballistics missiles will be Thors.

There are said to be 15 missile launching platforms to a squadron, the Times added.

The sources quoted were at the air force association, Dallas, for the convention of which ended Sunday.

Rog Vander Wyst Cops Battling Title With .423 Effort

Little Chute — In their first effort as a combined unit, the Little Chute-Kimberly Papermakers won the Fox Valley league championship and posted a 30-6 record for the season, one of the top amateur marks in the state.

During the regular league games the LC-K club had a 16-2 mark and then took two out of three games from the Menasha Macs, first round champs, in a playoff series.

Rog Vander Wyst, fleet footed centerfielder, won the individual batting title for the squad with a .423 percentage. Vander Wyst got off to a slow start in the opening games but came on strong in the latter part of the campaign.

Comanager Floyd Hammen was second in the hitting race with a .402 average and right fielder Gene Peerenboom ranked third among regulars with a .391 mark.

In addition to the regular FVL games, the Papermakers played a heavy exhibition slate and also entered the state semi-pro meet, getting as far as the semi-finals at Milwaukee County stadium.

St. Mary Grid Team at Home in League Contest

Kaukauna — The St. Mary Catholic Grade football team will attempt to continue its winning ways this week entering the St. Patrick of Menasha in a Catholic league game.

St. Mary has won both league starts to date. A day for the game is to be agreed upon by the coaches involved. Holy Cross gridders, the second local team in the league, will travel to Little Chute on either Thursday or Friday to tangle with a strong St. John squad, defending champions. The Chuteers are as yet undefeated while Holy Cross has one win and a tie in loop action.

Poppy Day Set By VFW Women

Kaukauna — Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary have selected Oct. 17 as "Buddy Poppy Day" in Kaukauna with members to sell the commemorative flowers on street corners in the business districts.

Mrs. Frank Mitchell and Mrs. Fred DePatie, co-chairmen, will appoint committees to sell flowers and to solicit business places to buy poppy posters. One-half of all money collected is kept in Kaukauna to assist needy veterans, according to the co-chairmen.

The balance of the money is apportioned to the state and national VFW rehabilitation service which aids veterans and supports the national home for widows and orphans at Eaton Rapids, Mich. The remainder of the money goes to veterans who made the poppies.

Soccer to Open GAA Play at High School

Kaukauna — Soccer will be the first activity for the Girls Athletic association at Kaukauna High school with play to open Wednesday under the direction of Mrs. Carlton Brown, physical education director.

Captains will be named. Only sophomore, junior and senior girls will be permitted to participate. All teams will play in the same league. The captains will be responsible for choosing teams and officials for each game.

Waupaca Youth Fined For Village Speeding

Little Chute — Daniel E. Solberg, 18, Churchill street, Waupaca, appeared in justice court and pleaded guilty of speeding. He was fined $20 and costs. Police arrested Solberg Sept. 22 for traveling 53 miles per hour in a 25 mile per hour zone.

City Safety Unit Supports Film Campaign

11 Agencies Join in Drive Showing Need For Traffic Safety

Kaukauna — The city safety committee, appointed last year by the common council, in cooperation with 11 sponsoring agencies and Walter Holt, owner of the Rialto theater, has started a year long safety program.

Entitled, "Lessons on Safe Driving," the program consists of 26 short colored film features on some phase of traffic safety practices. Each film is designed to cover a specific season of the year.

The film will be shown each day every other week for a full year or 26 showings. The films are being spaced to keep public interest and to avoid the danger of viewers becoming bored with traffic safety suggestions.

Placards have been distributed to agencies cooperating with the safe driving program.

Cooperating Agencies Joining the safety committee in sponsoring the films are Gustman Chevrolet Sales, the Bank of Kaukauna, Badger Northland, Egan Insurance agency, the Kaukauna Times, Look Drug stores, Schouten Oil, Flanagan Insurance agency, Thilmany Pulp and Paper company, Badger Tissue Mills and Winnebago Natural Gas corporation.

Members of the safety committee include Clifford Kemp, safety director for the Thilmany Pulp and Paper company; William Glasheen, Third ward alderman and chairman of the public protection and safety committee; Lt. Robert Main of the police department; Julian Bichler, Kaukauna High school principal; James Lang, citizen member, and Barbara Boyd, member of the teenage safety council at the high school.

Girl Scouts Plan Final Picnic, Outing At Kimberly Park

Kimberly — Plans for the final picnic outing of the year for all Girl Scout troops have been completed, according to officers.

The girls will go to Sunset Point park, hiking there from Holy Name school where they will meet at 4:30 p. m. Saturday. Bad weather will postpone it a week.

Leaders will be in charge of each troop and girls will bring lunch. Games will be played in the park.

Legion Women Plan Public Card Party

Kaukauna — The American Legion auxiliary will sponsor a public card party at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the Legion hall.

Awards will be made at each table and various games will be played. Hostesses will be Mrs. Alfred Marzahl, Mrs. Art Kromer, Jr., Mrs. Ellen Streich, Mrs. William Koch, Mrs. Fred Mason and Mrs. Otto Hass.

Permit Issued to Tear Down Building

Kaukauna — A permit to tear down a building at 223 Dodge street was issued Monday by Lohar Kemp, building inspector, to Kuhn Enterprises, Little Chute. The concern will tear down a former implement building owned by Clayton Weyers, route 2, Kaukauna.

Kaukauna Births

Kaukauna — Community hospital announced the following births:
Son to: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Briggs, 208 Maple street, Kaukauna.
Daughter to: Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Jansen, route 3, Kaukauna.

Two Motorists Pay Fines in Justice Court

Kaukauna — Two motorists pleaded guilty to traffic charges when arraigned before Oscar T. Jahns, justice of the peace, Monday morning. Richard Vosters, 38, route 3, Kaukauna, was fined $10 and costs for failing to stop for an arterial. He will have three points charged against his record toward revocation of driver's license.

Norbert Kons, 17, 512 Buchanan street, Little Chute, was ordered to pay court costs and has his driving license revoked for 30 days after pleading guilty to a charge of speeding.

Machine Shop Wins Award At Locks Mill

Combined Locks — The machine shop crew of the Combined Locks Paper company has received a citation for nine years of operation without a lost time accident.

The citation was presented to the department by William Berfield, safety engineer for an insurance firm.

Over 365,000 man hours are represented in the safety record. The award was accepted by R. A. Vogt, mill manager; R. C. Heiss, maintenance engineer; Charles Muelemans, master mechanic and George Driessen, machine shop foreman.

Men who work in the department include John Van Deraa, Ben Simpson, John Menting, Urban DeBruin, Wally Buechler, Ted Buechler, Norbert Weyenag, Tony DeBruin, Harold Jansen, Syl Beyer, Curt Jansen, Bob Vandeu Heuvel and Jim Jansen.

Members Needed To Form KHS Science Club

Kaukauna — Plans are underway at Kaukauna High school to form a science club under the direction of Roy Wentzel, chemistry and science instructor.

Membership is open to any student interested in scientific study and wishing to do independent study and possible experimentation in specific scientific fields. Work will be done separate from regular classroom activity.

It is hoped the club will provide students to work on specific scientific problems under proper supervision which in turn will help safeguard the student against costly accidents. Capable individuals will also have the opportunity to gain recognition by exhibiting results of their work at science meetings on various levels.

Cabinet Rank Urged For VA Director

Albuquerque — Dr. Cabinet rank for the director of the veterans administration is urged by the national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Commander John W. Mahan, Helena, Mont., told New Mexico veterans Sunday that the "size of our veterans program fulfills the requirements for admission to the cabinet."

Mahan also called for the formation in the senate of a veterans committee. He said 17 veteran measures died in the senate in the last session of congress.

To Your Good Health

We Should All be Constantly Conscious of Tuberculosis

JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: My friend expects a visitor from another state. This visitor, plus a member of his family, has had TB. My friend has three young children. Will they be exposed to TB? What would you suggest in a case such as this?" —A reader."

Thanks for signing your name—that I used your pen name as requested. I like to know who is writing to me and where they live, but have no objection, naturally, to using just your initials or something else.

This is a problem that comes up again and again, because TB remains a very common disease. Except for mental illness, there is no disease which requires as many big hospitals as TB.

In the sort of instance you tell about, I'm on the horns of a dilemma, so far as deciding how much emphasis ought to be given in print. And since I can't decide which of two ways is more politic, I guess I'll just blurt out some facts.

TB Dangerous
TB is a dangerous, widespread disease and needs a lot of emphasis. We all should be constantly conscious of it. But when a case has been arrested, we also should recognize that fact and not ostracize the recovered patient.

Note that I say arrested rather than cured. I use that term for a couple of good reasons. For one, an attack of TB does leave some scarring of the lungs. You can't cure those scars. They stay. On the other hand, when a case has been arrested, it means that the TB germs no longer are active.

No Transmission
If there are not live TB germs present, then the disease obviously can't be transmitted.

Therefore, the patient with an arrested case is not a peril to anyone else. We should not make such a person feel that he is a pariah. He's been to the hospital, his germs have been conquered, and he is not endangering others!

I must, however, add that a former patient, both for his own good and for the safety of others, should be examined periodically to make sure that the disease has not reactivated again.

And for the benefit of some people who think they know more than anyone else, a TB patient never should leave the hospital before the doctor says he may. Some patients feel good after some treatment. They want to get back to their jobs, their families, their friends.

Or they may just get bored in the hospital and sneak out. That is the one thing a patient must not do. He seriously risks his own life, and he is a walking threat to others.

But the arrested case, after suitable sputum and other tests have been made, showing that active germs no longer are present, is perfectly safe. He won't transmit the disease to anyone else because it has been eradicated in his own body.

No Connection

"Dear Dr. Molner: My brother, 56, has hardening of the arteries. Does that mean he has heart trouble? He tells everyone he has a heart condition—Mrs. S. B."

No. It means his arteries aren't as rubbery as they used to be. He might, for all I know, have a heart condition, too, but just having hardened arteries doesn't mean heart trouble. (Copyright 1958)

Feudalism in Syria Hit by Nasser Ruling

Damascus, Syria — The Nasser regime struck a hard blow at feudalism in Syria this weekend with a new law affecting nearly 3,000 big landowners.

The Syrian law limits landholdings to 200 acres of fully cultivated land. It closely parallels a decree issued in the early days of the Egyptian revolution.

Land in excess of 200 acres will be taken over by the state for redistribution to peasants. The old owners will be compensated over a 40 year period.

The minister of agriculture, Ahmed Haj Yunes, said 95 landowners in Syria hold 2,500 acres or more. But one estate in northern Syria is reported to consist of 750,000 acres.

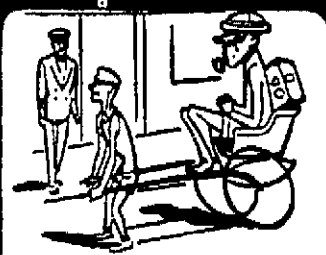

Big landowners own approximately 3 1/2 million acres of the 12 1/2 million cultivated in Syria.

As in Egypt, the land measure appears to be intended to eliminate the power of feudal lords. In the past big landowners could count on peasants votes and economic power to give them a powerful political voice in the country.

The situation here differs from that in Egypt in many respects, however. Egypt is overpopulated and hungry for land while Syria is underpopulated.

School Board Pares $31,000 Off '59 Budget

Expects to Meet With Council Committee Monday

The school board trimmed $31,309 from its tentative 1959 budget Monday night in preparing for a meeting with the council's school advisory committee next Monday night.

At the same time the board included $31,000 for possible raises for teachers and administrators and $8,112 for expected raises for custodial, clerical and maintenance personnel.

The cut leaves the total tentative budget at $2,683,476. This is $289,880 over the amount budgeted for 1958. But, this year's actual expenditure is expected to go about $8,427 over the budgeted amount. This would make the 1959 tentative budget $281,253 over the amount used to run the schools this year.

Cuts Listed

Cuts made Monday night included:

Payment of half the cost of group hospital insurance, $17,500. The school board has not paid for half of this insurance in the past, but it has been proposed for several years.

Blacktopping of areas at Morgan, Jefferson, Lincoln and Franklin schools, $13,183. This leaves money in the budget for blacktopping at Edison, Washington, McKinley and Jackson schools.

Payment of group life insurance premiums, $5,000. This also would have been something new if included.

Repairs to auditorium seats at the senior high school, $4,000. Board members felt this could be delayed at least one more year.

Installation of automatic coal feeds at Jefferson school, $1,000.

Playground equipment for Jefferson, Jackson, Richmond, Morgan and Franklin schools, $1,462. This leaves money in the budget for adding playground equipment at McKinley, Edison, Columbus, Lincoln and Washington schools.

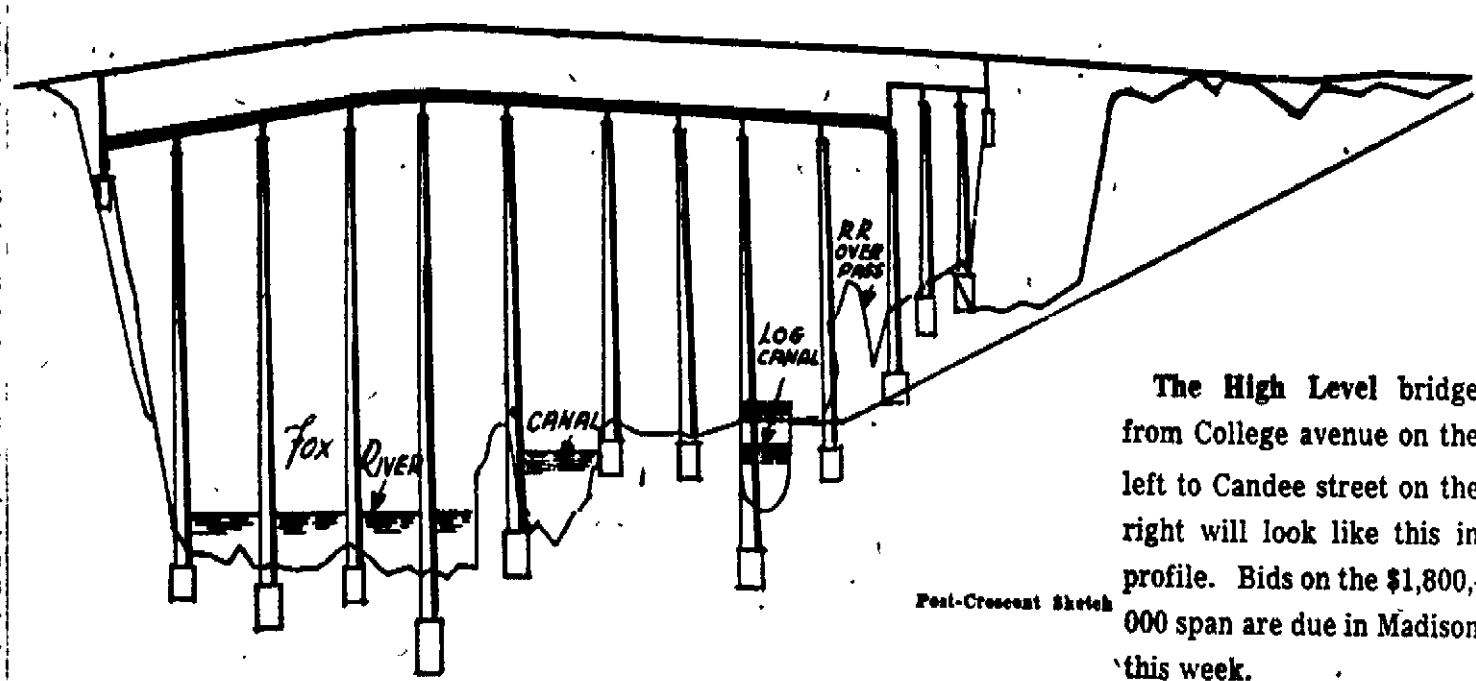

Blacktopping

Also cut out was blacktopping of the parking area at Jefferson school, $1,000; replacement of tile in the Wilson Junior high school auditorium, $850; installation of a partition in the commercial room at the senior high school, $600, and some other small items.

A saving also will be made by cancelling one-fifth of the fire and extended coverage insurance for the schools and rewriting it for a five year period. The insurance was just instituted this year, but the school board wants to get it on an annual basis. This will be done by cancelling a fifth of it each year and rewriting it so that much comes due each year.

The $31,000 put in the budget for possible salary increases, is in place of a $20,000 estimate. The earlier sum was for raises to the annual increment for teachers and for raises for educational administrators. The board next spring will decide the actual raises to be given teachers and administrators.

Items added to the budget included $1,300 for extra help

These Days

November Election Regarded As Forerunner to Vote in 1960

BY GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Much depends upon the next election, for it is a forerunner of 1960 when a new president is to be elected.

The Democrats believe that there is a trend toward them and that they will carry both New York state and California which in practical terms could eliminate both Richard Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller as Republican possibilities. It is now generally taken for granted that Nixon will be nominated on the Republican side, but it is also assumed that if Nelson Rockefeller is elected governor of New York in 1958, he will seek the Republican presidential nomination in 1960.

Republicans are anxious to elect William Knowland as governor of California because that will arrest the trend in that state toward the Democrats. The conservative Republicans are anxious to have Knowland elected because he represents constructive thinking in the United States. Also, if Knowland is elected governor of California, there can be no question as to Nixon's nomination by the 1960 Republican convention.

Warren of Confusion

The Republicans are also anxious that Sens. Barry Goldwater and George Malone should be reelected to the United States Senate because they represent the kind of republicanism which regards New York as a warren of confusion.

Enormous sums of money are being poured into Arizona and Nevada to defeat these Republicans. Much of that money comes from New York and some from Washington. It is labor money and liberal money, often contributed by bankers who have not yet discovered that they cannot control the United States through their enemies any more than through their friends. Although occasionally they can effect a fix, the smart politician stays away from them because Wall Street is like a sieve where everybody knows what everybody else is doing. Anyhow, the combination of labor racket money and Wall Street money often hurts a good man. It did Sen. Pat McCarran.

The campaign in most parts is too costly and too dull. The reason is television. Party workers are not too excited about television because they like to be seen by a candidate, to shake his hand, to hope that he will remember each one.

Few Issues

As there are few issues to discuss, all candidates resort either to ad hominem arguments or to dodging the issue. For instance, the bankers and the big industrialists generally favor peace at any price because they fear that they will be eliminated in the next war by the ferocity of government controls. In the peculiarity of the 1958 campaign, these are factors that need to be considered. Issues have been eliminated, but it also has a certain pattern, he is likely to be endorsed by the A.D.A. (Americans for Democratic Action), a Social Democratic group that infiltrates both major parties. No great foreign issues have arisen among the parties, except that the Democrats say that the Republicans do everything all wrong and the Republicans still believe that the Democrats are responsible for Soviet Russia stealing the atom bomb.

Body of Girl Found in Church; Fatally Shot

Chicago —P— An 18-year-old girl was found fatally shot Sunday night in a church near her home in suburban Northbrook and police and a coroner's official said she had killed herself.

Police, who identified the girl as Bonnie Lemley, said a .32 caliber pistol from which a single shot had been fired was beside the body. They also said a note which she apparently had written was found.

The body was found in a school room of the First Church of Christ Scientist.

Philippines Asks Japan for Loans In Power Project

Tokyo —P— The Philippines called on Japan Monday for big loans to help build the Marikna river power dam northeast of Manila and expand Philippines telecommunication facilities.

Japanese officials have previously expressed willingness to help in these projects, whose total cost is estimated at $784 million.

A proposal submitted by Minister Caesar Z. Lanuza, chief of the Philippines reparations mission in Tokyo, envisages loans amounting to $47,800,000 outside the reparations framework.

The mission noted that Japan might profit economically "The machinery, equipment, supplies and materials needed for both projects," it said, "are obtainable from Japan at reasonable cost."

'It's All in the Game' Top Record in Fox Cities

Appropriate Choice for This Week,
But High on List for Some Time

BY DICK DISC

It's all coincidence, but it's a good one. "It's All in the Game," recording by Tommy Edwards, has hit the top of the Fox Cities' tune list this week, just at World Series time.

The tune has been hovering high in the chart for the last two weeks. Bobby Day's "Rockin' Robin" still is the No. 2 tune and the jazz type melody, "Topsy" has moved up to third place in its second week in the top 10.

There are two new tunes in the top category this week. One of them, the bright and snappy "Forget Me Not" by the Kalin twins, was reviewed previously. Another new tune, in the bottom spot this week, is "The End," sung by Earl Grant.

Most Popular

Here is the top 10, according to Fox Cities' choices;

1. "It's All in the Game" by Tommy Edwards.

2. "Rockin' Robin" by Bobby Day.

3. "Topsy, Part II" by Cozy

Cole.

4. "Summertime Blues" by Eddie Cochran.

5. "No One Knows" by Dion and the Bleimonts.

6. "Forget Me Not" by the Kalin Twins.

7. "Nel Blu Dipinto Di Blu"

by Domenico Modugno.

8. "Summertime, Summertime" by the Jamies.

9. "How the Time Flies" by Jerry Wallace.

10. "The End" by Earl

Grant.

Top tune across the land still is "Nel Blu Dipinto Di Blu" with "Bird Dog" in the runner-up spot. One of the big records of five years ago was "Dagnat" and 10 years ago "Twelfth Street Rag" was very popular. "Nel Blu" is also a big tune in England.

Nelson Winner
The new record spotlight includes: "I Got a Feeling" by Ricky Nelson. This is Nelson's newest and it's sure to be another hit. It has all the attributes of his former records and features his own voice without distorted backing. The tune is fast and has a good beat. The other side is "Lonesome Town," a slow lonely ballad sung with good feeling. Both sides are excellent.

"What Little Girl" by Frankie Avalon is a medium tempo tune with cute lyrics and a good feminine chorus backing. Another "Ginger Bread."

"It's So Easy" by the Crickets reveals Buddy Holly is the leader again. This record features the usual style and techniques of the Crickets. It's a good tune well sung.

Other New Records
"Hideaway" by the Four Esquires is a medium beat tune with singing much like the Four Coins. Has good beat and sensible lyrics.

"Non Dimenticar" by Nat King Cole is a romantic ballad of Italian origin. Translated it means "Don't Forget" and is great for King Cole fans.

"Blue Ribbon Baby" by Tommy Sands has a snappy uptempo melody with well-styled arrangement. Sands doesn't quite put this one across, the tune just doesn't seem to fit him.

This week's new albums include: "The College Spirit" by the

Post-Crescent Photos

University of Michigan Men's Glee club features "Anchors Aweigh" and, of course, "On Wisconsin" as well as many other rousing college songs. The chorus has a full sound and presents each song with gusto.

"Milestones" is Miles Davis' latest effort, a nice one featuring some fine jazz. Title tune is done exceptionally well.

Woman Playwright Dies in England at 81

Fittleworth, England — Gertrude Jennings, 81, who wrote comedies for some of Britain's greatest stage stars, died here Sunday.

She began her career as an actress, appearing in the United States under the name of Gertrude Henriques. Her mother was the American Actress Madeline Henriques. Her father, L. J. Jennings, was an editor on the New York Times and later a British member of parliament.

Miss Jennings wrote her first play, "Between the Soup and the Savory," in 1910 and her last, "Bubble and Squeak," in 1945.

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE

Washington — The nasty dilemma of the United States in the Formosa strait has presented a high opportunity to the Democrats to provide creative assistance to the president.

The most powerful of them are aware of this. And, it may be predicted, when congress returns in January, our China policy will come under a constructive review intended to find a way forward rather than to catch scapegoats.

The central problem is to develop a policy, in our relations with the nationalist regime of Chiang Kai-shek and with the Chinese communists, that will:

Unite the people of the United States who seem deeply divided and deeply confused.

Draw out western allies — Britain in particular — far closer to us in Asia.

Reduce that part of our commitment to Chiang that is merely sentimental.

Strengthen both our determination and our ability, however, not ever to see Formosa fall to the communists.

Emotionally Involved
First of all, it must be recognized that never on a foreign issue have we had the emotionally empurpled public and private partisanship that so long has cursed us over China. The right-wing Republicans years ago made bitter

Bipartisanship Needed in Formosa

Democrats Have Opportunity to attempts to prove the Democratic administrations of Messrs. Roosevelt and Truman deliberately turned mainland China over to the communists.

This was the silliest of partisan melodrama. Nationalist China was lost by nationalist China, and by nobody else — and all that is water over the dam, anyhow.

The all-out Chiang people

Tuesday, Sept. 30, 1958 Appleton Post-Crescent A11

are really arguing he ought to be permitted to involve us in major war, if only for his own purposes. The all-out Chiang antagonists in substance are really contending that because Chiang himself is an ally of doubtful value we should just give up the whole show to the communists.

It seems not unreasonable to suggest that the truth lies somewhere in between—and maybe even about as follows:

1. Chiang himself is certainly not so useful an ally as, say, the British in any case, and we must not do anything in his aid that will leave us naked and alone in the western alliance.

2. Formosa, all the same, is truly vital to western security, just as the president and Secy. of State Dulles have been saying over and over.

Emerging Challenge

3. Just as it was irresponsible to destroy public confidence in the old Democratic civil and military leadership so it is irresponsible now to do the same thing to the current Republican leadership.

4. Because we simply cannot let Formosa go, we cannot afford publicly to throw Chiang to the wolves. Whatever he is otherwise, he does at present represent Formosa; Formosa is power and prestige; this power and prestige is indispensable to our allies from Manila to Seoul in Korea to Tokyo.

5. Thus, in summary, we must keep the position of power — Formosa — without mortally alienating our western allies and in such a way as not to destroy the position of prestige with our eastern allies.

All this defines the emerging challenge to the Democrats. No doubt it is a very hard thing. But it will not be impossible, granted adult magnanimity on both sides in wiping the partisan slate clean and in calm, sensible planning for the future. What is needed is to look at the thing for what it is, a great security problem, and not merely as an opportunity to canonize or to smash John Foster Dulles.

Union Approves Contract With Fairmont Firm

Hourly, Weekly Wage Hikes Granted Under New Pact

A new 1-year contract with the Fairmont Foods company, negotiated in Chicago last week, has been approved by the Appleton teamsters union, Robert Schlieve, business agent, reported today.

The contract, which expires June 1, 1959, covers about 210 employees of the processing plant in Green Bay and sales personnel in Appleton, Green Bay, Stevens Point and Escanaba, Mich. The contract is retroactive to June 1 for inside employees and Aug. 8 for drivers.

A 10-cent hourly boost was granted to the inside workers, Schlieve said. The new rates are janitors $1.92, general laborers $1.80 starting wage, $1.91 after 90 days and $2.02 after six months; semi-skilled worker $2.12, skilled workers $2.22 and semi-trailer drivers, $2.31. They cover a 40-hour week with time and a half for overtime.

Changes in job classification will result in higher than average boosts for some inside employees, Schlieve stated.

Average Increase
Average weekly increases for driver-salesmen, dependent on sales, are as follows, the business agent reported: retail milk routes, $15, whole-sale milk routes, $30, and $40-$70 for combination whole-sale routes. The higher adjustment for combination drivers brings them in line with other drivers and local commission scales.

The contract establishes a $52 weekly base rate with a $75 minimum for retail and wholesale drivers and $57 base rate with $75 minimum for ice cream and combination milk and ice cream drivers. There is a complete revaluation of unit standards. Commission rates are based on units sold.

Drivers' weekly pay is based on the minimum wage, plus commission. They average a 55-60 hour week, Schlieve explained.

Sick Leave
Sick leave was set at 21 days per year, compared to 12 days under the old contract. Workers will accumulate sick leave time while serving in the armed forces. Beginning Nov. 1 there will be a 5-day work week with 6-day delivery. A driver will deliver his route five days and a relief man will take over on the sixth day. The driver will receive pay for six days.

Employees will get vacations after working 60 per cent of the total work year — one week after 1-year's service, two weeks after 2-year service and three weeks after 12 years.

The contract retains all existing standards for probation, union security and seniority. It is similar to one signed with the Morning Glory division of Badger Consolidated Co-op and will be used as a model in negotiations with other firms.

The teamsters expect to resume negotiations soon with the Tri-City dairy association.

Man Escapes Serious Hurt In Explosion

Bear Creek—Francis Rohan escaped a stove explosion in his home Sunday with only minor face and neck burns and singed hair.

The explosion shot sheets of flames through his 2-room, wood frame house, destroying all his furniture and personal effects and damaging the dwellings' walls.

Rohan, village garbage collector, touched off the explosion when he returned from church about 7:30 a.m. and struck a match to light the stove.

The stove operates with liquid petroleum gas, Volunteer Fire Chief Edwin C. Reinke said. Reinke believes there was a leak in a valve or Rohan had left a valve partially open.

"It was quite a jar," Rohan told Reinke. Eighteen village volunteers, manning two pumps, put out the flames in about 10 minutes. They returned about 11:30 a.m. when more fire erupted inside the walls.

Top Swine Brings $145 At County Sale

Charles Wilson and Sons, route 1, Appleton, paid $145 for a Yorkshire bred gilt, top prize at the Outagamie county swine breeders sale in Seymour Saturday.

The animal was consigned by F. E. Kaphingst and Sons, route 1, Appleton. The top selling open gilt was a Landrace consigned by Sambs Brothers, Hortonville, and purchased for $77 by Kenneth Kirckman, route 2, Algoma.

Albert Bruns, route 2, Hortonville, consigned the top boar, a Yorkshire, purchased for $100 by Allen Schampers, route 2, Kaukauna. Nine open gilts sold for an average price of $60.17, seven bred gilts for a $94.93 average and 23 boars for a $73.56 average. A total of $2,897.50 was paid for the 39 animals consigned for an average of $74.29 per animal. The next sale will be held at the Outagamie county farm Feb. 14.

Edith Rechcygl Named to State Post

Starfighter Called World's Most Deadly Jet Fighter

BY JAMES CARY

Starfighter Base, Northern Formosa — The needle-nosed killer tore down the runway and shockwaves of sound thundered across the base.

The newly arrived F104A Starfighter, billed as the deadliest jet fighter in the world, was on its way—a part of the mushrooming American buildup to help nationalist China meet the threat of communism in Formosa Strait.

The stubby, 55-foot plane was officially unveiled here this week.

The Starfighter set a new world altitude record of 91,249 feet. It has a range in excess of 1,000 miles, operates easily above 50,000 feet, has only a 22 foot wingspread. It has the most powerful jet engine ever built and looks more like a missile than a plane.

Very Sharp Wings
It squats low on the ground, a tiny bullet-like weapon with a long nose filled with special air recording devices.

Nestling under the thrust-forward cockpit is a special 20 millimeter cannon whose rate of fire is still secret. The wings are knife-sharp resistance. Rubber covers protect them on the ground. Underneath nestles a lethal sidewinder air-to-air missile, capable of seeking out an enemy plane and knocking it out of the skies.

The pilot sits in a specially designed cockpit and wears spurs that fit into sockets inside the cockpit. They perform a strange mission of keeping his feet in place if he has to eject in flight—downward in this plane.

Rolled on the flying ramp it looks like an awkward, wounded bird with clipped wings. But fire up the motor and it is transformed into a screaming demon of power. The plane streaks forward with tremendous acceleration. It leaps into the air and climbs like an eagle into the heavens.

Yet Capt. Walter Irwin of Novato, Calif., rates it a real pilot's airplane, "not dangerous, extremely simple to handle." He set a speed record of 1,404 M.P.H. in a Starfighter last May.

Man Who Caused Accident Fined $200 in Court

A Milwaukee man who failed to yield the right of way and caused a semi-truck loaded with logs to turn over Friday, was fined $200 this morning in municipal court after he pleaded guilty.

John P. Cernicka, 36, first denied the charge but later changed his plea. Cernicka was going northwest on Highway 76 and had stopped at the stop sign at the junction of Highway 45 at West Greenville. He started across the intersection when the truck, driven by Reinhold Watters, 56, Bowler, swerved to miss the car, causing the load of pulp wood to shift. The truck jackknifed and turned over. No one was hurt.

Cernicka will lose three points for the violation and three more for the accident.

State Sewage Works Operators Announce Appleton Meeting

Plank Crashes Through Car Windshield

A Milwaukee man escaped serious injury by inches Monday as a plank fell off a passing truck and smashed through the windshield of his car.

Gilbert A. Pierson, 56, was driving west on Highway 41 north of the Fox Cities about noon Monday when the two-by-four was blown off the top of an eastbound truck. The plank crashed end-first through the windshield of Pierson's car, missing his head by inches. He was cut by flying glass and taken to Appleton Memorial hospital by Larry's ambulance. He was released after treatment.

Driver of the truck, Chester T. Bundy, 31, 1106 S. Telulah avenue, was unaware of the accident and continued on down the highway until he was stopped by police. Bundy later was arrested for spilling a load on the highway.

Service Society Holds Campaign In County

The Children's Service society is conducting a fund drive this week in Outagamie county. No solicitations are being made in Appleton where the agency is a member of the Community fund.

In charge of county solicitations are Mrs. William E. Buchanan, Mrs. Charles Dostal, F. Joseph Sensenbrenner, Mrs. E. Bradley Shepard, all of Appleton; Milford Steffen, Hortonville; E. R. Sutherland, Kaukauna; Mrs. Warren Dewey, C. W. Wood, both of Kimberly; Mrs. Alma Kildonk, Little Chute; Mrs. Forrest A. Huth, Seymour; and Mrs. G. M. LaCroix, Shiocton.

Casework counseling and foster home care are the major services of the voluntary agency. Referrals are made to the society by the state department of public welfare, other public agencies and institutions, private children's and family agencies and referral centers, courts and other law enforcement agencies, hospitals, physicians, nurses, attorneys and clergymen.

Valley Iron Wins Award

The Valley Iron Works company has received the department of defense reserve award, Talbot Peterson, the firm's secretary and public relations director, reported today.

In a letter to President R. A. Peterson, Defense Secretary Neil McElroy congratulated the firm for encouraging and assisting reservist employees in fulfilling their military obligations.

A presentation will be made later.

College Lists Convocations

Nine Out-of-Town Visitors to Appear In Semester Series

Nine out-of-town visitors will appear on the Lawrence convocation series during the first semester.

Musicians performing on the Lawrence Community Artist series are listed with the convocation program, since students attend the artist series concerts instead of an academic gathering that week.

The schedule lists:

Oct. 2 — Chaplain David Maitland of Carleton college.

Oct. 16 — Shirlee Emmons, artist series soprano, accompanied by Wesley Teply, both of the Lawrence class of '44.

Oct. 23 — Dr. Albert Parry, professor of Russian civilization and language at Colgate university.

Nov. 6 — Rabbi Dudley Weinberg, spiritual leader of Temple Emanu-El B'Nai Beshurun in Milwaukee.

Nov. 13 — Toshiya Eto, artist series violinist.

Nov. 20 — G. de Bertier de Sauvigny, lecturer on French politics of Paris, now a guest instructor at Notre Dame university.

Dec. 4 — Sen. Ernest Gruening, former governor of Alaska, now representing the 49th state in Washington.

Jan. 8 — E. Power Biggs, artist series organist.

There will be other programs presented by students and Lawrence faculty members. All convocations are held at 11 a.m. the dates listed, with the exception of the artist series programs, which begin at 8:30 p.m. All are open to the public, and the artist series is the only group for which admission is charged.

Baldwin Cottage Ransacked in Oconto County

A Berry lake, Oconto county, cottage owned by Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, 422 W. Seventh street, was ransacked of almost everything movable except the furniture over the weekend.

The thefts were discovered by Mrs. Baldwin when she arrived at the cottage with several grandchildren to spend the weekend.

Among articles taken were a television set and some foodstuffs while a second load of potential plunder was packed and set on the kitchen table awaiting the return of the thieves. To be included in the second trip was food from the cottage's freezer.

Oconto county authorities suspect a local person or persons because of the apparent familiarity with the cottage.

Dr. Chester J. Hill, Lawrence college professor of psychology will open a lecture series sponsored by the Women's auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal church at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. He will discuss "The New Advertising." The weekly series will conclude Nov. 6.

Ballet Stories New Book in Children's Room

The story of four ballets with hints on how to look and listen to them and biographical notes on composers, choreographers and dances is among new books added this week to the children's room of the Appleton public library.

"The Ballet Companion" by Maynard will be available for circulation Saturday.

Other additions this week include "My Village in Yugoslavia" by Gidal, "Model Planes for Beginners" by Gilmore, "The First Book of the Panama Canal" by Markun, "Thank You, Mr. Sun" by Ruchlis, "South of Cape Horn" by Sperry, "Touchdown Pass" by Bee, "Half Magic" by Eager, "Hilly" by Gray, "Judith" by Rowland, "The Perilous Road" by Steele, "Tiger of Bitter Valley" by Youngberg, "Let's Go to School" by Buchheimer, "Abner's Cabin" by Evers, "Ten Big Farms" by Ipcar and "Somebody Else's Nut Tree" by Krauss.

Check on Milwaukee, Says Sen. Douglas on Water Diversion Issue

Chicago — Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) declared Monday that Milwaukeeans have proclaimed war against Chicago over this city's efforts to increase diversion from Lake Michigan into the Illinois waterway.

Douglas told Chicago newsmen they ought to visit Milwaukee to check up on Milwaukee's sewage disposal system.

A major contention of Great Lakes senators is that Chicago should improve its own sewage treatment plant rather than seek more Lake Michigan water to keep Chicago's treated effluent from stagnating in the local sanitary canals.

Douglas pointed out that Milwaukee discharges its treated sewage into Lake Michigan, and he questioned the effectiveness of Milwaukee's treatment.

'Seideman and Son' Rated Tops in Chuckle Department

BY JEAN WILEY THICKENS
Of no particular literary value but as entertainment, Ellich Moll's "Seideman and Son" is tops.

The author is a young Jew who grew up in Chicago and had two years at the University of Chicago before he was obliged to leave school when doctors told him he was going blind.

Moll organized a dance band, married, and for a time sold refrigerators. For a while, he managed a music school. Finally he regained his sight and started writing. He began with short stories and eventually attracted the attention of Hollywood. Since then he has written frequently for both movies and television.

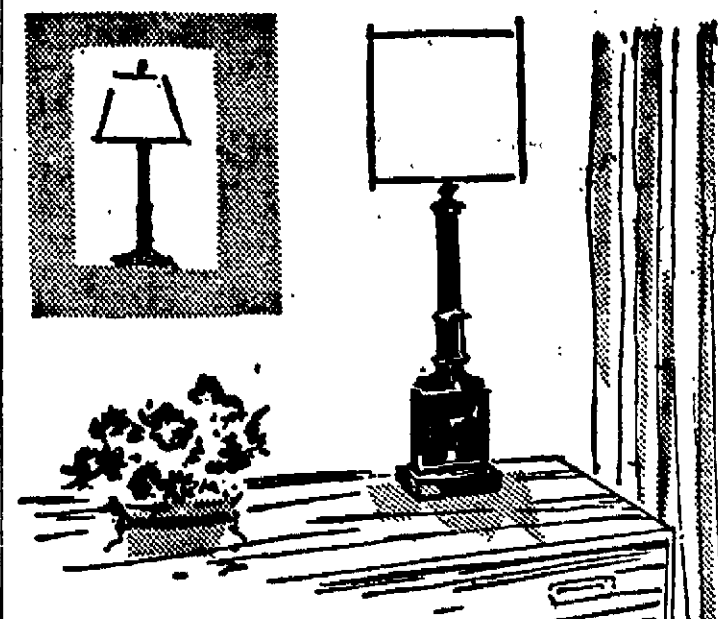

Clothing Industry
Moll assures his readers that his story is not autobiographical although it is the combined account of certain incidents and events in the life of both his father and his father-in-law. The dress designing business during the years his father-in-law was a dress contractor on Seventh avenue, New York, plays a prominent role. The scene of the story is his father-in-law's shop on Seventh avenue, the center of the clothing business.

The story is rich in humor, at times laced with pathos in the anxious and paternal frustrations of Morris Seideman. His only son Harold returns from army service in Korea at the age of 21, showing disturbing theories and beliefs which dangle on the brink of communism.

Harold is really a handsome, high minded youth who has returned home resolved to reform the world, beginning with his father's shop. He not only causes trouble for his distracted parent, but even more so for the employees. His crack-brained theories especially disturb two of the young models who work for the Seideman firm. Lift for a Lamp

A certain small lamp may be one of the nicest things in the house, but it's dangerously near the discard every time there's a smart display in the store of tall new ones. Don't resist the tall new lamp, but it could be that the old short lamp can stay around, too, if it's restyled. Give it a lift both in height and good looks with a new extra base.

Wood and bits of molding can build tall if they're put together like this, and the new height will take a bigger shade. This trick makes it possible to add half again as many inches, sometimes more, to a short lamp's original height. Yes, a specialist may be needed to make the new base and wire it, but you can design the base and give the wood a fine mellow finish yourself.

Culbertson on Bridge

By Ely Culbertson

Contract bridge as played by the experts is apt to be a pretty grim affair, since these players believe that the interest and entertainment are in the battle rather than in casual and non-pertinent conversation. Even the experts, however, have their lighter moments, and the following hand provided such an occasion.

North-South vulnerable.
D-Q 9
C-K 10 7 5 4

WEST EAST
S-K Q 2 S-J 6 3
H-A 9 8 5 4 H-10 7 3 2
D-7 6 D-10 4
C-9 8 3 C-A J 5 2

SOUTH
H-
D-A K J 8 5 3 2
C-Q

This deal came up in a national tournament, and quite a few South players climbed up to a contract of six diamonds — to their sorrow. Other pairs stopped more discreetly at three no trump or five diamonds, thus bringing home a vulnerable game, but one pair of North-South players became involved in a fantastic mixup that landed them at four hearts — and instead of getting a zero on the board, came out with a top!

The auction at this table went as follows:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1 D 1 H
2 C Pass 2 S Pass
3 NT Pass 4 H Pass
Pass(!) Pass

The fact was, of course, that North was asleep at the switch. An experienced player, he should and would have known, of course, that South's four-heart call was only a cue bid showing control, but North hadn't had much sleep, and he passed without even thinking.

Everyone at the table enjoyed a hearty laugh when West opened a low trump, won in dummy and declarer showed out, but in his amusement West relaxed a little too much! Trying to make some tricks, declarer led a low club from dummy, and East was also a bit too relaxed when he ducked, letting South win with the blank queen. South then cashed two diamonds and led a third round, and West decided to ruff. Instead of overruffing in dummy, declarer threw off a spade.

Now West had a brain storm. For no conceivable reason, he led the ace and another trump! Thereupon, South — flabbergasted but not paralyzed — drew the rest of the trumps, led to his spade ace and took the rest of the tricks with his diamonds, making the remarkable contract and an overtrick!

In Good Taste

Sometimes 3 Seems to Be Crowd

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I meet a girl friend on the subway station and we ride to work together. The other morning when I arrived at the station she was already there and John was talking to another young woman — a stranger to me. When I saw this, I did not go over to her as usual, but stood a distance from them. When I saw this friend the next day she accused me of being "high hat." Will you please tell me whether or not it is proper when two people are talking together for a third person to join them? I would very much appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: If they seemed absorbed in their conversation, I think it was better, not to join them unless she made some sign to you to come over. If, on the other hand, they didn't seem especially interested in what they were saying, it would have been quite all right to join them.

Double Thanks

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently, my supervisor gave me three tickets to a symphony which he was unable to use. I invited two of my friends to go with me. Although I thanked him for the tickets myself, I also thought my friends should send him a note of thanks. May I have your opinion on this?

Answer: Your thanks for the tickets was sufficient. The persons you invited to use the tickets owe their thanks to you, not to your supervisor.

Remarried Widow

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon for the second time. I am a widow. I would like to know if, after my marriage, I should retain my late husband's name as a middle name or my maiden name?

Answer: You discard your first husband's name and retain your maiden name.

Tell Winners

Of Contract Bridge Tourney

American league winners in tourney play of the Appleton Contract Bridge association Monday night at the Elks club were Mrs. Clyde Tennis and Miss Kathryn Kelley, first; Mrs. James Hobbins and Ralph Davis, second; Lloyd Doerfler and Dr. S. L. Chudacoff, third, and John Stein and Joseph Schiss, fourth.

In National league competition, scorers were Mrs. Julie Singler and Mrs. A. B. Adams, first; Mr. and Mrs. John Fourness, second; Mr. and Mrs. William J. Roemer, third, with a tie for fourth shared by Norman Brokaw and Con Crowe and Dr. E. N. Krueger and C. A. Beirnard.

The group will next meet at 7:30 Monday night, Oct. 8, at the Elks.

WSCS to Hold Study Sessions On Middle East

Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church will hold four meetings in October to study the Middle East. This is the mission study course for the 1958-1959 season.

Representatives of the 10 circles of the WSCS will meet at 8:50 at the home of Mrs. Ray Steen, 1617 N. Durkee street, on Wednesday and Thursday and Oct. 15 and 16.

Mrs. Clinton Roach will conduct the course. She attended the conference School of Missions in July at Beaver Dam.

The purpose of the course is to channel informed thinking into the context of the church's world mission. The group will study the geography, history, peoples and religions of the Middle East.

Lady Elks to Meet

Lady Elks will hold a business meeting at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon at the Elks lodge. Card play will close the session.

Love Wins Over Gold

Baltimore — A young secretary plans to say her "I Do's" Saturday and with that she'll be proving that love for her man is stronger than love for money. Like $2,500, for instance.

Miss Shirley Klein, a 21-year-old blonde, has decided she'll forego the money in favor of James A. Halloran, 24, of Woodbury, N. J.

A law suit got entangled in Cupid's game last May when Miss Klein and Halloran were motoring in West Virginia. They were in an accident and she claimed she received injuries.

Became Engaged

After she filed a civil action against him, she became engaged to Halloran. Their wedding is set for Saturday.

Last week Miss Klein won a $2,500 court verdict against her husband-to-be. But the money would come from an insurance company, not out of his pocket.

Miss Klein might still get

the $2,500 by delaying her marriage and waiting out an appeal which the insurance company has filed. But that could take months.

Forfeits Case

Monday Miss Klein's attorney, Marvin Ellin, tried unsuccessfully to get a circuit court order directing the company to pay her the claim at once.

A West Virginia statute provides that a woman who obtains a judgment against her husband-to-be and then marries him prior to the appellate court action, forfeits any further contest of the case.

Ceremony Unites Couple

St. John Evangelical and Reformed church, New Holstein was the site of the Sept. 20 wedding of Miss Arlene Joyce Kluball and Roy Clarence Lechler. They exchanged wedding vows at 1 o'clock before the Rev. Charles Koch.

The ceremony united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kluball, route 1, New Holstein, and the son of Mrs. Selma Lechler, route 1, Kiel. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Donna Kluball attended her sister as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Doris Lechler, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Nelson Lechler, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Leon Mueller, sister of the bride.

Roy Lechler was his brother's best man, and the groomsmen were Nelson Lechler, Eugene Lechler, brother of the bridegroom, and Leon Mueller. Ushers were Jack Lechler, brother of the bridegroom, and Alfred Gerdes.

Soloist for the ceremony was Kenneth Greene, New Holstein. Mrs. Ted Stuebel, New Holstein, presided at the organ.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother from 2 to 4 o'clock. A supper was served at the Elite hall, New Holstein, followed by a dance in the evening at Cedar Lake dance hall.

The couple will reside at route 1, Kiel, where the bridegroom will operate his mother's farm. He is a 1952 graduate of Kiel High school and served two years with the army.

The bride is a graduate of Antigo High school, and is employed at the Levenenz Shoe factory, New Holstein.

Appleton Woman's Club Sets Varied Program for '58-'59

A varied program, ranging from the modern communicator, television, to the ancient cities of Turkey, has been slated by the Appleton Woman's club for the 1958-59 season.

The club opened its program this month with a tea Sept. 11 at Worcester Art center. Alice Graham Winters, Oak Park, chose the topic "Trip Around the World in 52 Days."

"Stepping Along With TV" is the topic selected by Miss Alice Heiland, Milwaukee, for a 1 o'clock luncheon meeting Oct. 9, at the Elks club. Marvin McMahon, superintendent of Waukesha School for Boys, will talk on "The Unwanted Boy" Nov. 13 at the Elks club.

Set Christmas Tea Members will bring guests to a Christmas tea, with the Yuletide program to be given by Mrs. Vincent Derscheid. The story "I thought I Heard Them Singing" and carols will be featured.

New Year programs will begin Jan. 8, when Harold Carlson, exchange teacher who visited England, will tell his experiences at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Elks. His talk "Education and Living in England" will be illustrated by slides.

Fabrics will be shown by George Kadow for his program on "Today's Interiors" a 2 o'clock Feb. 12, when the women gather for a tea at the Elks club.

Foreign Students' Panel Foreign students will donate native costumes for an international panel discussion at a 1 o'clock luncheon March 12 at the Elks. Moderator will be Mrs. Clarence J. Weber, Sheboygan, chairman of International Federation of Women's clubs; district representative of Fox River Valley for American Field Service International Exchange scholarships.

Mrs. E. K. Nielsen will use slides for her talk "Bari, Byzantium and My Turkish Friends" at a 2 o'clock tea April 9 at the Elks. Season will close May 14 with a charge of the program.

Club Sets Annual Birthday Party The annual birthday party will be held by the Women's Guild of St. John Evangelical and Reformed church at a 1:30 Thursday afternoon dessert event at the church. Mrs. Tillie Jahn is in charge of the program.

may not wear alike
Two fur fashions may seem "just alike" . . . when new. But the test is — how will each look after several months of service? Then their difference in quality often shows.
No investment you can make calls for more specialized experience than the purchase of furs. From the least costly mouton to the most luxurious mink, there are various grades which defy any but the fur expert's knowledge. It is our proud responsibility to select furs that bring lasting pleasure to their wearers.
If you're thinking about choosing a new fur . . . whether a small scarf or a full length coat . . . come in now and see our wonderful fur fashions.

ing house for the baby and me.
A year ago this man's wife fell in love with an artist and she filed for divorce. My sweetheart wants to marry me as soon as it's legal to do so. Both of us want our son back from the people who adopted him.
I heard somewhere that if a person can prove in court the adoption papers were signed under emotional stress the paper can be nullified. Is this right? We hate to blame you but we think you gave us bad advice. You can square yourself by putting us straight on this one.—BUD AND CLARA

I'm sorry you feel I gave you bad advice but my recommendations were based on the facts as you presented them. You had no crystal ball at the time of your trouble, and neither did I. Hindsight is better than foresight by a darned sight.
I'm no lawyer and I can't tell you what your chances are for getting your son back. I AM a mother, however, and I am telling you that if you succeed in taking a son away from parents who have grown to love him, you'll be causing innocent people indescribable pain.
I hope you'll put this chapter in the past, where it belongs. Merely because the situation has altered and you've had a change of heart is no excuse to break someone else's.

DEAR ANN: How does an honorable man tell a woman it's all over? I'm 48 and have been divorced for six years. Two years ago I met a woman 40. She's never been married, holds a good position in a government office, owns her own home and car, and makes a fine appearance. She seemed extremely fond of me as I was of her.
I gave her an engagement ring for her birthday and asked her to set the date for Spring. She put me off saying she had some bills she wanted to pay. When Spring came, she wanted to take a vacation by herself to "think things over". Then her aunt got sick. After that she wanted to redecorate her house. I was always something.
Three months ago I ran into a friend I used to be crazy about in high school. She lost her husband in 1955 and moved to this city. To shorten the story I've been seeing this woman and we get along beautifully. She'd marry me tomorrow.
I know you'll tell me I was a skunk to two-time my fiancé but it all happened innocently. How can I tell her out of the clear blue that I want to marry someone else?—BRAD

Don't be shocked if she doesn't go to pieces right before your very eyes, Romeo. A woman in her 40's who's been dragging her feet on the way to the altar doesn't have the urge to merge. She'll probably be relieved when you take her off the hook. Tell her precisely how you feel—and fast.
DEAR ANN: Exactly how much money is a teenager supposed to get as a weekly allowance? My folks don't know how embarrassing it is to be flat broke when the gang wants to get a soda or hunk of pizza. Growing children must eat several times a day to keep their energy up.
I don't expect a hundred dollars a week or anything like that but a kid should have some sort of jingle to his jeans. My parents are a square pair, strictly out of it. Wise them up, please.—TEDDY

And how old is this teenager who wishes his jeans to jingle? And what exactly is he willing to do in the line of service in exchange for the beautiful tinkle of those magic coins? Get down to the facts, Buster. You're the one who's out of it. When you answer my questions, I'll answer yours.
Visitors Leave for Home in California
Lt. and Mrs. E. Dolf Pfefferkorn left Sunday for Oakland, Calif., after visiting a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ballard, 706 N. Owassa street.
The couple also visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Pfefferkorn, Oshkosh.
Lt. Pfefferkorn is with the navy medical corps and is to be stationed at San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Robert Radtke
Marion Couple Says Vows
Miss Dorothy Koentopp and Robert Radtke repeated wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at Immanuel Lutheran church, Caroline. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Malueg, Marion, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Radtke, Marion.
The Rev. V. J. Zuberbier officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony Saturday evening, Sept. 21.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was preceded down the aisle by her sister, Miss Beverly Koentopp, New Holstein, the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Radtke, sister of the bridegroom, Marion, and Miss Caroline Revels, Marion.
The bridegroom's brother, William Radtke, Marion, was the best man. Groomsman were Evan Carpenter, Shiocton, and Ray Pocket, cousin of the bridegroom, Marion. Ushers were Donald and Arnold Mielke, Marion.
The couple was honored at a buffet supper, reception and dance at the Caroline ballroom.
Following a honeymoon in Michigan, the couple made their home at the Star route.
The bride attended Marion High school and the bridegroom is a graduate of that school. He is employed in farming.

Elks 337 Officers To be Installed

The new officers are Mrs. Russell Peotter, president; Mrs. Sylvester Van Schynel, vice president; Mrs. Wesley Reeder, treasurer, and Mrs. Roy Schumacher, secretary.
Following the business meeting Mrs. Carol Lane, a woman's travel expert representing a New York oil company spoke on "Traveling Is Child's Play."
After the lecture a social hour was held. Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Trettin and Mrs. James Van Rooy.

VFW Units Entertain at King Home
A variety show comprising singing, comedy and dancing acts was performed by the drill team of Harvey Pierre Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at the September birthday party Monday night at the Grand Army home at King.
For the past 5 years VFW posts and auxiliary units have entertained home residents at monthly parties.
Fifty members of the local VFW post and unit attended the celebration which honored 38 guests. Mrs. Frank Koch, hospital chairman, was in charge of party arrangements which included a lunch served by the women.
Lawrence Thomas served as master of ceremonies and Kermit Muenster directed the variety show. Performers were Gilbert Melchert, Daniel Boldt, Virgil Ebben, Edward Kies, John Steenis, Willard Krueger, Gerald Lyman, Gerald Schilhabel, Percy Blount, William Hoffman, George Michelson and Muenster.
Mrs. Donald Manier, Eighth district president, is attending the district president's membership rally at 2 o'clock this afternoon at LaCrosse. She will be among delegates greeting Mrs. Leedy Myers, Great Bend, Kans., national president of the VFW auxiliary, at a reception tonight. Wednesday's agenda will include a department meeting and a banquet honoring Mrs. Myers.

"Traveling Is Child's Play" Was Mrs. Carol Lane's theme Monday evening when she addressed the Elks 337 club. Mrs. Lane, left, is a woman's travel expert representing a New York oil company. A portion of her lecture was devoted to tips on packing a suit case. Mrs. Martin Hupka, program chairman, center, and Mrs. Charles Klucker, club president, right, are being given some advice on packing for a trip.

A Proposed 6-Classroom Addition to St. John Catholic grade school, Menasha, is expected to be completed by September, 1959. The addition, designed by George Narovec, Appleton, architect, will be built on the front of the present building. Bishop Stanislaus V. Bona already has approved the addition and bids will be called as soon as the church's building committee, which meets tonight, approves final plans. The parish decided to construct the addition instead of dropping kindergarten and first grade classes next September.

State Values Winnebago at Half Billion

Menasha Share of County Tax-Down, Neenah Ratio Up

Oshkosh — Winnebago county's full value has been set at $511,689,340 by the state supervisor of assessments of office, an increase of about $18.5 million from last year. Recommended valuations for the various townships and cities were submitted to the county board's taxation committee this morning, along with suggested percentages each district should pay of the state and county tax levy next year.

For the fifth consecutive year, Menasha's ratio to total county property value was reduced while Neenah was given a higher ratio. Menasha's ratio was suggested as 14.733 percent for next year, down from 14.878 per cent. Five years ago Menasha paid 15.772 per cent.

Neenah's ratio will be 18.956 per cent, up from 18.755 this year and from the 17.713 per cent share paid five years ago.

Towns Raised
Percentage shares of fourteen of the 16 townships, the village of Winneconne and the city of Neenah were raised. Menasha, Oshkosh and Omro were given lower ratios. Higher livestock values was cited by Matthew Gravitz, Jr., of the state assessment office, for the township increases.

Town of Menasha was hiked from 7.974 per cent this year to 8.081 per cent next year and town of Neenah from 2.439 to 2.628 per cent for next year. Town of Clayton also went up from 1.144 to 1.165 per cent.

Village of Winneconne was assigned a 930 per cent, which is up slightly from its 912 ratio this year. Town of Winneconne was raised from 1.159 to 1.185, town of Vinland from 1.192 to 1.204 and town of Wolf River from 786 to 808 per cent.

Town of Winchester, however, was one of only two townships to get a lower percentage of county value. It went down from .734 to .726 per cent. Town of Nekimi was the other township with a smaller ratio of all county property value.

Oshkosh's state was cut from 36.926 to 36.332 per cent. The city of Omro went from 1.112 to 1.106 per cent.

Chest Fund Nets 18 Pct. of Goal

Neenah — Eighteen per cent of the $121,800 Community Chest goal had been received this morning, fund officials reported. Total contributions thus far are $21,551.

The Twin City drive got underway Monday and will continue through October.

$25,500 Price Tag On Station Site

Option on Church-Caroline Land Offered City by Chamber

Neenah — A price tag of $25,500 has been put on the cumulating from parking meter collections. The chamber opposes the Walnut-Doty site, contending the site is needed for downtown parking. The Church-Caroline site is acceptable to the police department.

The Church - Caroline site is slightly smaller than the 28,800 square foot area of the Walnut-Doty and Church-Caroline locations. Options on the Church-Caroline property also were sent to Bell today. Garlock's letter said, "We still believe this site (Church-Caroline) is more suitable for the Walnut-Doty location than the Church-Caroline site, on which the Chamber obtained options earlier and would cost $55,000; and the Church-Caroline in every respect."

In a letter to Mayor Chest-Bell and the council Garlock said, "The $25,500 price represents a saving to the city of $34,500 under the $60,000 Walnut-Doty location which has been proposed, thus allowing that site to be reserved for parking, a purpose for which it is ideally suited. As $24,000 of the Walnut-Doty site has been purchased with club adviser, and members of parking meter monies, the club will attend a student balance of $36,000. Likewise librarian workshop at Oshkosh State college Oct. 15.

St. Mary Library Club Heads Named

Menasha — New officers of the St. Mary High school library club are Judy Griesbach, president; Mary Anderson, vice president; Jeanette Jung, secretary; and Margaret Graves, treasurer. Sister M. Catharine, library site has been purchased with club adviser, and members of parking meter monies, the club will attend a student balance of $36,000. Likewise librarian workshop at Oshkosh State college Oct. 15.

$250,000 for UW Center Alloted by County Unit

Winnebago Approves Funds if Outagamie Offers Same Amount

Oshkosh — An appropriation of $250,000 to build a new University of Wisconsin extension center was approved by a special committee of the Winnebago county board Monday night provided the Outagamie county board offers an equal amount.

The appropriation still must be approved by the Winnebago board. All five members of the special committee approved the expenditure.

The action came after the special committee met with members of a citizens committee from Neenah - Menasha, Menasha Mayor R. G. DuCharme, and V. I. Imhoff, Menasha extension director. John Wulterding, Neenah, member of the citizens committee, said both counties would have to approve joint construction of the center and then form a 3-county committee to work out building design. After the type of building is chosen a site can be picked, he stated.

$450,000 Project
Wulterding maintained the entire project, including the building, architect's fees and landscaping, could be finished for $450,000.

"Our biggest concern is to have the center approved by both county boards," Wulterding pointed out.

Van Jackson, Omro, chairman of the special committee, told board members students attending extension center save about $500 each school year by living at home.

If an anticipated 300 attend the new center, it will save Winnebago and Outagamie county families about $150,000 the first year, almost a third of the entire cost of the project, Jackson maintained.

The University of Wisconsin board of regents voted $145,000 for equipment at a new Menasha center. The funds must be approved by the coordinating committee for higher education and the state building committee.

This year, 165 students are attending extension classes.

Food for Moderns Course Offered By Adult School

Menasha — A food for moderns class will be held from 6.30 to 9 p.m. Wednesdays, Miss Leona Bovee, Menasha Adult school homemaker supervisor, said today.

A supper class, scheduled from 5.30 to 8 p.m. on Wednesdays, has been cancelled. New methods of food preparation, nutrition, meal planning, meats, desserts and baking will be stressed in the food for moderns class.

New Pastor of St. Timothy Lutheran church, Menasha, is the Rev. Robert C. Jacobson, now pastor of the Lutheran church of the Atonement at Bloomington, Minn. He will begin his pastorate here Nov. 2, succeeding the Rev. Franklin C. Heglund, who left June 1 for a pastorate at Albuquerque, N. M.

Larsen Man Takes His Life

Found Hanging From Tree by Son; Funeral Thursday

Neenah — Elroy Spiegelberg, 59, route 1, Larsen, took his life by hanging late Monday night or early this morning. A son found him hanging from a tree in a pasture on their farm. The sheriff's office received the call at 5:55 a.m. and Dr. G. A. Steele, coroner, said the man had been dead for several hours.

Spiegelberg was born Oct. 20, 1898, in the town of Winchester and lived in the area all his life.

Funeral services will be at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Westgro Funeral home, with the Rev. Arthur Tingley, pastor of St. Paul English Lutheran church, in charge. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 9 o'clock Thursday morning until time of service.

Survivors include the widow; three sons, Delmar at home, Delvin, Neenah, and Emory, route 1, Neenah; five brothers, August, of Dale, Charlie, Weyauwega, Arnold, Manawa, George, Larsen, and Oscar, Oshkosh; four sisters, Mrs. August Rieckman, Larsen, and Mrs. Ida Snider, Fond du Lac, Mrs. Harvey Kuehl, Oshkosh, and Mrs. William Siefert, New London; and three grandchildren.

Pleads Innocent Of Tippy Driving

Neenah — Douglas E. Maloney, 32, Oshkosh, pleaded innocent of drunken driving, operating on the wrong side of the highway and speeding this morning when arraigned before Police Justice Edmund P. Arpin, Jr. Trial was set for Oct. 20.

Maloney was arrested at 10:30 p.m. Monday by Neenah police, who followed his auto from S. Commercial street and Columbia avenue to Washington park on Winnebago avenue. Maloney refused to take a drunkometer test and was held overnight in the Menasha jail. He was released without posting bond.

Hiawatha Play To be Seen by Grade Students

Childrens' Theatre Unit to Sponsor Menasha Event

Menasha — Colorful Indians and birds will whoop and swoop into Menasha Oct. 24 when the children's theater committee of Menasha elementary schools sponsors a production of "Hiawatha and the Magic Forest Bird."

The play is performed by Broadway actors and dancers who are members of the Mercury Wanderers, an adult professional touring company from New York.

The play will be held at Menasha High school auditorium for first through sixth graders. It combines dances and music with dialogue.

Richard Dunham directs the play. Action takes place among the Iroquois Indians during the time of the harvest festival. Special Indian dances and choreography are by Gian Pace.

Each elementary school room will work on units pertaining to Indian life and lore prior to the play presentation. Indian life will be the theme of school assemblies.

Serving on the childrens' theater committee are Miss Laura Martin, Miss Dorothy Sorenson, Mrs. Dale Loomans and Mrs. Mary Crockett, chairman.

Oshkosh Teenagers Reported Missing

Oshkosh — A missing persons bulletin was issued today by Oshkosh police for two teenagers missing since Friday.

They are John Sanvidge, 17 and Chester Farry, 15. Farry's mother said he left for school at 7:15 a.m. Friday but didn't show up there. Sanvidge is reported to have taken a suitcase of clothes with him.

Another teenager, Eugene Shew, 14, has been missing since Sept. 23, police said. All the youths are from Oshkosh.

Jandreys Observes 92nd Anniversary

Schalk Recalls Changes in Retail Business, Customer Buying Habits

BY KIT CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Neenah — The Jandreys company, Neenah department store, observes its 92nd anniversary this week and the man who has played a key role in the business has plans for a bigger and better future.

Max Schalk, president of the company and a veteran of 53 years in the retail business, has been with the firm

E. E. Jandreys, Jr., is secretary-treasurer and general merchandising manager.

Mostly Yard Goods
When Schalk joined the company, he recalls, the business was almost exclusively yard goods. Women made all their clothes and linens. Since then the yard good business has diminished steadily and ready-to-wear has taken over. Such departments as mens' furnishings, cosmetics, floor

Man Loses Foot In Gun Mishap

Carl Walter, 42, Cleaning Weapon While Loaded

Neenah — A 42-year-old Neenah man lost his left foot and lower leg Monday night after a loaded shotgun fired while he was cleaning it.

Carl C. Walter, 405 E. Cecil street, was cleaning the 12-gauge, pump action in his home.

Walter's wife told police he went to the basement about 5:15 p.m. to clean the gun, which he had shot the day before. A moment later she heard the shot and heard him call "Mom."

40 years. He watched the business develop from a small dry goods company into a major department store.

The company was founded in 1866 as the William Kellett company and operated on the northeast corner of Wisconsin avenue and Commercial street. E. E. Jandreys, Sr., who worked for Kellett, took over the business in the next decade. He moved the store to its present location at 120 W. Wisconsin avenue in the 1880's.

Schalk joined the firm as general manager in 1918 and took over as president when the Ace Supply company, 505 Jandreys died in the mid-1930s.

'Strong Mayor' Government in Neenah Urged

Taxpayers Group Reports Findings Of City Study

Neenah — A "strong mayor" type of government for Neenah was urged Monday night by representatives of the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance.

C. K. Alexander and James Morgan, of the Alliance, explained the 36-page report they submitted earlier to the mayor and council.

Under the "strong mayor" plan, the mayor would be the supreme administrative city plan, perhaps such a plan as officer and would relieve the council of many administrative duties, leaving that body free to concentrate on the local time for formulating legislative policy.

Major facets of the plan include appointment of department heads by the mayor, as reported said. Such planning entails a sumption by department head of administrative duties now performed by aldermen, and listing needs and priorities preparation and presentation for the next decade or so, to the council of the budget subject to constant reevaluation.

"Weak Mayor" System — Alexander noted the WTA Under the present so-called "weak mayor" form of government, department heads are elected by the council for reorganization. The city's each year, aldermen spend still to a full-time mayor much time on such matters; still is not fully understood as street light placement and under such a system the issuing licenses, and the budget, "strong mayor" type of government is prepared by various department heads and given ed.

The recommendations would mean setting city policy by the council in matters where no policy now exists. The council may suspend its rules to permit preparation of the 1950 budget by the mayor with aid from department heads.

The report cited need for future planning, claiming many Neenah problems result from the city government not keeping pace with growing population.

Neenah has the tools necessary for planning — street and zoning plans, building inspection, subdivision control and street improvement programs — but has no means of collecting them into a comprehensive plan, the report said.

Urges Master Plan — The Taxpayers Alliance urged adoption of a master supreme administrative city plan, perhaps such a plan as officer and would relieve the council of many administrative duties, leaving that body free to concentrate on the local time for formulating legislative policy.

Major facets of the plan include appointment of department heads by the mayor, as reported said. Such planning entails a sumption by department head of administrative duties now performed by aldermen, and listing needs and priorities preparation and presentation for the next decade or so, to the council of the budget subject to constant reevaluation.

The revolution in merchandising and in merchandise lines is far from over, Schalk feels. The supermarket type of shooting is growing and sales clerk assistance is doomed to succumb, he said.

Department store architecture, permitting such supermarket merchandising and shopping, also is undergoing change, brought about largely by stores in the post-war shopping centers, Schalk said.

There also are changes in buying habits. "A woman who walks into the store already is half sold," Schalk said. "All she has to do is find what she wants, buy it and leave. She doesn't need a sales talk. Nor will she haggle over price or quality as she might have done 20 years ago, he said.

Credits Advertising — The change is due largely to advertising which keeps reminding potential buyers of products and outlets, Schalk feels. The 71-year-old executive keeps close supervision over the Jandrey ads himself.

Business is good, Schalk says, and Jandrey's nourishes an idea to expand the store building to permit better display of goods and more stock. Schalk feels a shopper can get anything she wants in the Twin Cities if she looks for it. However, he would like to see a major chain store locate in Neenah or Menasha. It would bring customers downtown and benefit all retailers, he said.

Annual Event

Displays, Program Features Of Grange's Booster Night

Greenville — The annual booster night program for South Greenville grange Saturday night was highlighted with displays of cakes for judging, fancy work, old cook books, dresses made for the national grange sewing contest and flowers and vegetable displays.

Mrs. Elmer Root won first place with her angel food cake and Mrs. Kenneth Julius second with her hickory nut chicken cake. Judges were Mrs. Armin Gerhardt and Mrs. Ray Kinziger, vocational teachers. Mrs. Lester Pingle won first with her dress on the subordinate grange level.

Fifty-year members honored with corsages were Mrs. Tina Wismer and Mr. and Mrs. August Julius. Twenty-five year members and visitors were also acknowledged.

Young people who presented "Juvenile Spark" were John and James Julius, Mavis Porter, Peggy and Pricilla Schmetzer, Eric and Dean Pingle. Mrs. Lawrence Stuedle and Mrs. Paul Porter sang. Mrs. Schmetzer was the narrator and Mrs. Charles Schaefer the pianist.

A dress revue was presented by the girls of the Ellington 4-H club under the direction of Mrs. Louis Steidl. Herbert Wickesberg reported on the resolutions drawn up by the legislative committee. Elmer Root gave an agriculture report and Harold Reinders reported on the community service committee.

The third and fourth degree will be given at the Oct. 11 meeting.

Industry Park Site Bought By Waupaca

Waupaca — The purchase of 37 acres of land for a Waupaca Industrial park for $7,000 was completed when papers were filed last week with Aileen Miller, acting register of deeds.

The land is located west of Waupaca and was owned by the Bergstrom Paper company, Neenah, and was intended for a new safety paper plant. The plant was built in Neenah instead.

The site will be used only for industrial expansion in Waupaca. Land will be sold to present city industries planning expansion or to new industries coming into Waupaca.

Learn Way To Apply Lipstick

There's a right way to apply lipstick, and a wrong way. Well-groomed women know the difference and take the time to apply their lipstick so it is becoming and neat.

First, blot your lips to insure dryness or apply a thin layer of liquid make-up or face powder to the lips. This will make lipstick last.

With a lipstick brush, outline the lips. This year's prettiest lip shape is slightly pointed at the peaks. Although sticking to the natural contour of the lips usually gives the most alluring appearance, lips can be beautified by outlining smaller, larger, wider or longer lips if care is taken. Then, with the brush or the lipstick itself, fill in with color. Allow the lipstick to set for a few minutes before blotting with a facial tissue. If you tend to be a little shaky, the brush can be steadied by holding the little finger on the chin.

Try to keep your lipstick in an even, rounded shape by dipping into it with the brush along the sides — not always in the center.

Red Adds Flare to Clothes

If the day is grey and your mood matches it, brighten both up with red. Red is strong fashion and certainly one of the favored fall colors. Red is right, always. It can be gay and casual, sophisticated or "sirenish." Any way you wear it, it makes sure when others see you, they really see you.

One caution should be observed. Don't let red wear you. If your natural coloring can't compete, try a flashing new lipstick, hair rinse or a bright accessory. Any wardrobe takes on a new shine and smartness when red is a fashionable ingredient.

A stroke of color for a rainy day is a slim red umbrella. It makes all the difference when sported with a beige raincoat. A red jersey hood is perfect for football games on a brisk fall day. A perfect blend with vivid autumn shades is the shiny red alligator clutch bag, which adds dash to a grey suit or tweed dress.

Bright red shoes in the newest pointed toe design are sure-fire fashion headlines with gold, tan, copper or red garments. For just a touch of red, wear the latest in gloves... curlicue mohair knit gloves that are as warm as snow mittens. A glowing red velvet rain coat that looks lavish enough to double for an evening wrap is a frivolous and functional addition for potluck dinner and to a new look in clothes.

See yourself in red this fall. Others will see you're well dressed.

Three Backs Deadlock for Scoring Lead

Britten, Miller, Stepanski Have Three Touchdowns

Neenah — Three backs are tied for the scoring lead in the Mid-Eastern conference with three touchdowns apiece. They are Pete Miller of Neenah, Tom Stepanski, Menasha, and Kaukauna's Bill Britten.

Stepanski scored all of his six pointers in Friday night's 21-0 win over Two Rivers. Britten scored twice in the Ghosts' 25-0 conquest of Shawano and Miller collected a touchdown in the first half against Clintonville before being forced to leave the game with an injury.

Keith Lambie of Clintonville, co-leader with Miller a week ago, was held scoreless by Neenah. He carried the ball to the two-yard line on a 35-yard run to set up the Trucker touchdown in the 7-7 tie with the Rockets.

Two Touchdowns
Others with two touchdowns are Archie Gough, Clintonville; Bob Wurdinger, Kaukauna; and Darrell Jansen and Jack Lamers, Kimberly.

Neenah's Don Jensen has a perfect 5 for 5 to lead the conversion department. Leon Westphal, Clintonville, has three successes in as many tries. Bob Frassetto of Kimberly has 5 for 7 and Menasha's Dick Taves boasts 3 for 4.

The five conference teams that broke into the scoring column last Friday tallied 14 touchdowns and converted after 10 of them. The clubs boast a .600 percentage after two weeks of play with 18 conversions after 30 touchdowns.

Two Rivers and Shawano were blanked for the second straight week. New London was shut out for the first time.

Pace Grange League

Menasha — Ella Smith posted a 535 series and Marie Schmidt had a 194 game in the South Greenville Grange Mixed Couples Bowling league Saturday night at Mid-Town alleys. Mildred Schaefer hit 190-524. The Gleaners (6-0) lead the Lecturers (5-1) by one game.

New London Jayvees Down Menasha, 33-26

Deal Bluejays Second Defeat; Losers Score First but Bulldogs Get Next Three Tallies

Menasha — Menasha's Jayvees scored first and last against New London but in between the Bulldogs tallied five times to topple the Jays, 33-26, Monday afternoon at Butte des Morts field.

The loss was the second in as many starts for the Bluejay Reserves. Both reverses have been by one touchdown. Menasha opened the scoring on a 50-yard dash by half-scoring play and Stern's kick. Bob Stumpf in the first quarter. New London tied the score on a pass from Gary a 50-yard keeper play by Herres to David Hutchinson Quarterback Ristau. Dave in a play covering 60 yards. Hess kicked the extra point.

The Bulldogs again took to the air in the initial period when Dick Stern and Tom from Bob Collins which en-Laux combined on a 50-yard pass play. Stern's kick made the score 13-6.

Tally Third Score
The Jays failed to get a punt away because of a bad pass from center with about a minute left to play in the half and New London took over on the Menasha 33. Herres went around right end on the first play for the score. Stern kicked the point for a 20-6 halftime score.

New London upped its margin to three touchdowns in the third period when Herres passed to Dan Grunwald for 15 yards and the tally. Stern's kick was blocked.

Dave Ristau returned the next kickoff to the Bulldog 42 and Stumpf broke off tackle and went all the way on the next play. The conversion attempt failed.

New London made the score 33-12 early in the fourth period when Herres and Hutchin-son combined on a 39-yarding on a 50-yard dash by half-scoring play and Stern's kick. Bob Stumpf in the first quarter. New London tied the score on a pass from Gary a 50-yard keeper play by Herres to David Hutchinson Quarterback Ristau. Dave in a play covering 60 yards. Neenah Reserves Nip Kaukauna, 8-7

Cop 22nd Straight Victory; Halle Scores TD for Rockets

Neenah — Neenah's junior varsity gridders nipped Kaukauna, 8-7, Monday afternoon to extend their 5-season winning chain to 22 games.

The victory was the second of the season for the Rocket reserves and by their narrowest margin of the win string.

Neenah scored the first time it had the ball. Taking over on its 40, it marched 60 yards, climaxing the drive with a 43-yard dash by Gary Halle. Tom Hensen's extra point attempt was blocked.

Kaukauna came back to score the next time it had the ball. It started on its own 47 and tallied on a 30-yard pass play from Quarterback Ken Kavanaugh to end Mark Haen.

Boots Extra Point
Pete Bachhuber gave the Ghosts the lead when he converted.

With about two minutes left in the first half, Neenah got another march going. After picking up 10 yards, Gary Halle fumbled on the Kaukauna 10 and the ball rolled to the three, where the Ghosts recovered. The Ghosts were pushed backward and Jerry Moen tackled a Kaukauna runner in the end zone for a safety and the winning margin.

Kaukauna threatened twice in the fourth quarter. Taking over on the Neenah 33 after a fumble, it moved to the 12, where it lost the ball on downs. The Ghosts got to the Rocket 14 on a 29-yard pass from Kavanaugh to Haen with 21 minutes left. Haen was caught from behind by Phil Dennis. Halle ended the threat by intercepting a pass.

Bryan Huebner, Leonard Peterson, Dick Koehn and Dick Wickham played well on defense for the Rockets.

Winnegamie Dog Club Schedules Meeting

Neenah — The Winnegamie Dog club will see an obedience training demonstration by Clem Skilling and one of his dogs when it meets at 7:30 Thursday night at the VFW hall, 501 N. Richmond street, Appleton.

Chairman Says

Payroll Plan Easy Way to Give to Community Chest

Chairman, 1958 Community Chest Campaign

Neenah — There are several ways to contribute to the Red Feather drive, but the one that is considered by many the most convenient for the giver is the payroll deduction plan.

We ask each wage earner in the Twin Cities to give his fair share to the Red Feather campaign. But under no circumstances do we want this to be a burden to the giver.

Twenty minutes a month of a person's wage or salary has been set up as a standard for a fair share contribution to the Community Chest.

When a giver signs up for the 20-minutes-a-month plan one-third of an hour's pay is deducted by the employee's payroll department once each month and turned over to the Community Chest. This is a continuing contribution, carrying over from year to year. An employee who signs up for this plan is no longer solicited in annual drives.

Gaining Momentum

The 20-minutes-a-month plan has been gaining momentum and increasing in popularity each year. It is an ideal way to contribute equitably and is easily managed.

Employees who do not have the opportunity to sign up for a payroll deduction plan at their place of employment may like to consider our deferred payment.

Under this plan an employee gives in quarterly amounts,

Craft Classes Open Saturday For Youngsters

Neenah — The recreation department again will sponsor craft classes this fall and winter for youngsters from 11 to 18, starting Saturday morning.

Crafts include leathercraft, copper enameling, basketry, silk screening and rosmaling. The instructor will be James Gehrt, who taught the classes for the last two years and directed the advanced craft classes on the Neenah playgrounds last summer.

The classes will meet from 9 to 10:30 a.m. and from 10:30 to noon on Saturday mornings. There is no charge, but each youngster must pay for materials.

NHS Girls' Senate Names New Officers

Neenah — New officers of the Neenah High school Girls' Senate are Carole Gallemeier, president; Pat McCrory, vice president; Nancy Jack, treasurer, and Jill Harker, secretary.

Committees named this fall include the sunshine committee with Pat McCrory, Nancy Jack, Laura Beatty and Ruth Heinzkill; the hospitality committee with Sharon Babcock, Karen Graversen, Karen Madsen, Marcia Huppler and Pam Moder. Gail Malchow and Nancy Bredendick are co-chairmen of the fund raising committee, which also includes Jill Harker. Dagmar Jaehnig, Peggy Angermeyer and Janice Cehler.

beginning in January of next year. The chest office will send out reminders when the payment is due.

The drive in Neenah and Menasha has been set up on an industrial basis — you give where you work and earn your money. There is no house-to-house solicitation. If anyone is solicited at home we want them to notify the Chest office immediately.

Former India Missionary Talks At Allenville

Allenville — The Rev. Irvine Robertson, Lake Villa, Ill., brother-in-law of the pastor, the Rev. Perry Britton, was guest speaker at the morning worship service Sunday at Community Baptist church.

He and Mrs. Robertson and their sons were in India for 12 years while he was a missionary there. The Rev. Mr. Robertson now is teaching at Moody Bible institute, Chicago.

Guests at the Britton home were the Robertsons and their sons and Mrs. Felcey Carlisle, Akron, Ohio, mother of Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Robertson.

Eighty-six attended Rally day and Promotion Sunday service. First year junior students were given Bibles.

Teachers are Mrs. Chester Smith, beginners; Mrs. Walter Raehl, first year primary; Mrs. Willard Allen, third year primary; Mrs. Arthur Reinders, first year juniors; Mrs. Harry Lautenschlager, second year juniors; Mrs. Kermit Brill, third year juniors; Mrs. Perry Britton, junior high; Mrs. Gerhard Boss, senior high; and Earle Armstrong, adults. Miss Ruby Merbs is superintendent and Mrs. Ray Foth associate superintendent. Pianists are Mrs. Britton, Mrs. Arthur Reinders and Mrs. Gordon Thieh.

Civic Club Officers Elected By St. John School Seventh Grade

Menasha — Jerome Welsgerber was elected president, Paul Luka, vice president; Mary Pawlowski, secretary, and Barbara Buksyk, treasurer, of the seventh grade civic club at St. John Catholic Grade school.

The music program at the school is being expanded this year. Sister Mary Alice, Sisters of St. Joseph music supervisor, will visit St. John this week to aid in the program.

College Head Will Talk to Rotarians

Neenah — Dr. Bjarne R. Ullsvik, president of Platteville State college, will discuss problems of higher education with members of the Neenah Rotary club Thursday noon at Valley Inn.

A native of Wisconsin, Dr. Ullsvik was administrative assistant to the president of Illinois State Normal college, Normal, from 1945 until he assumed his new position this month. He succeeded Chester O. Newlum, who served for 15 years.

Boys' Choir Officers

Neenah — New officers of the Neenah High school boys' choir are Tom Mottl president; Tom Smith and John Babcock, first and second semester secretary and roll taker; Tom Hensen, treasurer; Bob Bredendick, music chairman; Jerry Stief, room chairman; Bert Babcock, scrap book chairman, and Dick Liebelt, telephone and birthday chairman.

Cracks 236 Single; Schultz Joins 556 In 'Comic' League

Menasha — Jim Wiegand collected a 236 game and 508 series to dominate scoring in the Catholic Men's, Bowling league Monday night at the Menasha Recreation alleys.

Karl Berndt speared runnerup honors with his 225 game and 370 series. Don Rippl collected a 554 three-some and Paul Rippl tallied a 553 count.

Rippl Grocery managed only one win but leads the league with a 104-4 record. Broadway is half a game out. "Fritz" Schultz jolted a 556 series to pace the men and Dorothy Pansy's 197 game led women kieglers in the Mixed Comic Couples league Monday night.

Lester Gibson collected a 55 series and Mary Gibson had a 190 game for the only other high scores. The Bumstead team holds the lead with a 5-1 record.

Menasha Church Buys House for Future Needs

Oshkosh — St. Mary's congregation of Menasha has purchased the house at 516 Second street in the Menasha Fifth ward from Mrs. Nancy Chafee Rank, according to a real estate transfer recorded at the office of Register of Deeds Bernice L. Fuller.

The congregation will continue to rent out the property for the time being, purchasing the property for future needs. The house is west of the convent.

Other real estate transfers of property in the Twin City area recorded recently and the ward or township in which the property is located include:

Other Transfers

Alvin A. Hoelzel to Marvin Zempel, Neenah Seventh ward.

Marvin Zempel to George Summers, Neenah Second ward.

Alvin C. and Eugene M. Roehl to Gary F. Quigley, town of Menasha.

Steve Kolasinski to Alonzo I. Engel, Menasha First ward.

Charles J. Schmidt to Donald L. Boushley, Menasha fourth ward.

Eric Gummerus to John F. Hanson Menasha Third ward.

Leo I. Drucks to Richard C. Vils, Neenah Fourth ward.

Clarence A. R. Price to Lewis R. Emery, Neenah Ninth ward.

William A. Shannon to James A. Shannon, Neenah Fourth ward.

Allenville Grange To Install Officers

Allenville — Allenville Grange officers will be installed by Tom Hendry at the grange meeting at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The Juvenile Grange also will meet at 8:30 to finish articles for the Wisconsin State Grange session contests and the Christmas tag project.

Society Aids Children In Neenah of Normal Home

Neenah — For 69 years the Children's Service society of Wisconsin has been offering casework counseling to troubled children and their parents on a state-wide, non-sectarian basis. It is one of 10 agencies benefitting from the Neenah-Menasha Community Chest drive now underway.

More than $3,000 of the $121,800 goal to be raised in the campaign will go to this agency.

Children's Service society provides foster family homes for children who need the security of a normal home, but can't get it with their own families. When a child's home is reestablished, he may return to live with his own parents or relatives. If this isn't possible, he may be placed for adoption.

Helped 610 Children

The last printed annual report of the society listed 610 troubled children who came to the agency for help. Casework counselors, foster parents, physicians, psychiatrists and psychologists work together as a team to assure such children protection and security.

Youngsters under the society's care often are referred by public agencies because of disturbed behavior which requires more intensive service than the public agencies can offer.

Service to children of Winnebago county is given through the society's district office at Green Bay. Over 75 per cent of the agency's total budget is provided by Community Chests throughout the state.

Reds in China Draft Peasants Into Communes

Tokyo — More than 46 million Chinese peasant families have been drafted into people's communes since the China launched its latest communization project in June, Radio Peiping reports.

These are township-sized working organizations directed along military lines in China's "great leap forward" program.

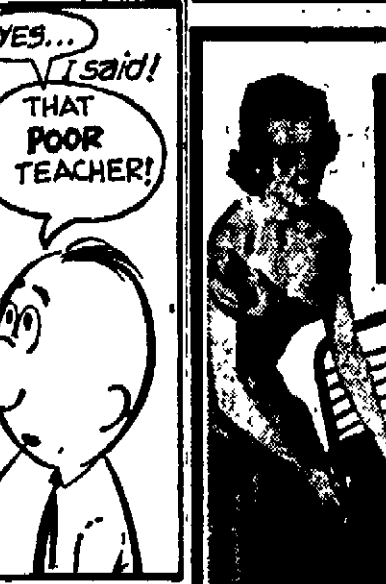

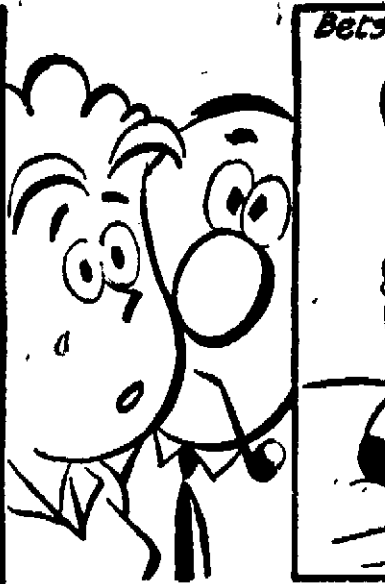

Peiping said seven million women have been "freed from household tasks" and put to work for the state in the new drive. They toil now in such fields as community restaurants, nurseries and kindergartens.

The communes—large, self-sufficient communities of villages and former cooperative farms embracing up to 50,000 persons each—have been set up with frantic haste in an effort to weld something more effective than the old cooperative system.

Bruhn Says Miami's 'Psychological Heat' Failed Against UW

Steiner's Bad Heel Only Disabling Badger Injury; MU's Lane Won't Play Saturday

Chicago — Milt Bruhn, football coach at the University of Wisconsin, said Miami's psychological heat failed against the Orange Badgers, but failed. Temperatures were in the 80s last Friday night when the team opened its season with a 20-0 victory over the Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl.

phone call to Madison told the Chicago American Quarterback club that his assistant, Perry Moss, warned him to expect a warm reception by Miami's practical psychologists.

"Perry knew about it because he was assistant coach at Miami three years before he came to us," said Bruhn. "He was right."

Bruhn said, "We no sooner got down there than sports writers, Miami coaches and athletic directors and others began telling us how hot it was."

He said, "By game time it was 87 degrees when we left our hotel for the Orange Bowl, but when we got there it was down to 83. When I went out onto the field, I again was reminded how hot it was."

"I merely said, 'Why, there is a fine breeze blowing down here; I think it's just great,'" Bruhn laughed about the strategy and said, "They even wanted to give us an oxygen tank with eight nozzles, so our players could catch their breath."

Steiner Hurt

Halfback Ron Steiner's jammed heel was listed Monday as the only disabling injury suffered by a Wisconsin player in Friday night's victory.

Steiner was the only player who didn't suit up for Monday's light workout for the varsity. The 17 top Badgers were excused from the heavy workout, a scrimmage of reserves and freshmen.

Commenting on the scrimmage, coach Milt Bruhn said, "This is what they needed. It was a good workout. Some of those frosh were having a real good time."

Tackle Barry Armstrong, a 270-pounder from Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., particularly gave the upperclass reserves a rough time.

Marquette's fullback ranks were thinned Monday when it was learned that a broken finger will keep sophomore John Lane from playing in Saturday's football game with Wisconsin.

Lane fractured the finger in practice last week.

The sophomore from Pueblo, Colo., had been running with the Warrior's second unit. Lane's absence from the field leaves the fullback reserve duties to Ernie Safran, a 1957 quarterback converted to fullback, and Mike Donnelly of Tulsa, Okla., a 1957 varsity reserve who has looked good in recent practice.

Vike Harriers Will Meet LaCrosse

The Lawrence college cross country team will seek its first win of the 1958 season in its initial home meet, at 4:30 Thursday afternoon against LaCrosse at the Reid Municipal Golf course.

The Vikings, 1957 Midwest conference champions, lost their season opener at Grinnell Saturday.

Tad Pinkerton, the 1957 conference champion, finished fourth at Grinnell behind the hosts' Yoak, Risser and Sachs — in that order. Appleton's Ron Simon, placed fifth and Captain Dave Berganini was tenth. The winning time, over the 2.5-mile course, was 13:46.

Grinnell, which placed third in last season's conference meet, was in prime shape for Saturday's competition, having started drills earlier than the Vikes.

Millers Triumph in Little World Series

Minneapolis — The town that tried mightily to land a major league baseball team and failed had the best available consolation prize today. The Little World Series championship.

The Minneapolis Millers, Boston Red Sox farmhands, belted the Montreal Royals, 7-1, Monday night to complete a 4-game sweep and give the American association its fifth straight victory over the International league in the annual playoff.

Stengel May Bench Berra

was the American league champs' leading hitter for the season with a .314 average. Berra hit .266.

The last game "Yogi" missed in the series was the second game of the 1949 classic, which the Yankees won in five games against Brooklyn.

Skowron at 1st

Berra, 33, has played the outfield for the Yankees this season, and also has dabbled at first base. The first base job, for the opener anyway, belongs to Bill Skowron. Since Casey has to play a left-handed hitter in the outfield, the odds say he has to go with Norm Siebern.

Siebern has been so impressive against left-handed pitchers — against the book — Stengel has even used him as a pinchhitter against southpaws this season.

Recalls Rejection by Casey

Spahn Has His Own Book on the Yanks

Milwaukee — Milwaukee's brilliant left-hander Warren Spahn, named to open the World Series for the Braves, once was warned by Casey Stengel that his pitching future wasn't very bright.

"You'll never be a good pitcher," Spahn said he was told by Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees.

Asked what kind of a manager Stengel was then, Spahn said: "He was nothing but a clown."

That was 16 years ago when Spahn was 21 and Stengel was manager of the Braves in Boston.

Sent to Hartford

"I'm not sure he even knew my name," said Spahn who will face the Yankees Wednesday in the first game of the series. "He sent me down to Hartford in the Class A league because we didn't have a Triple A farm club in 1942. I had come up from Class A."

As for Casey's management techniques in those days, Spahn said: "We started our games then at 3 in the afternoon. And if we had lost a ball game on a particular day, he'd have us out there working at 10 in the morning. We'd continue to practice until game time."

"After losing a ball game, he'd keep some of the boys on the bench for a long time and make them think of their mistakes."

The 37-year-old left-hander caused a mild ruffle when he said he has his own book on the Yankees this time and will pitch them differently than he did last year. New

Smith Signs 1-Year Pact

Succeeds Tebbetts, Dykes as Manager of Redlegs

Cincinnati — Mayo Smith will be the manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs next season and if he believes in the magic of numbers he probably thinks he has a pennant winner coming up.

The Redlegs won the National league pennant in 1919. Twenty years later in 1939 they won again. Now 1959 is coming up.

Of course, Cincinnati also won in 1940 so Smith, deposited as manager of the Philadelphia Phils only a little more than two months ago, might have to wait until 1960.

The contract he signed Monday, however, with Cincinnati is only a 1-year agreement.

to either rookie Carlton Willey or veteran Ernie Johnson.

Now for the hitting. Mantle's healthy condition is bound to add strength to the Yankee attack. The slugging center fielder was handicapped last fall by a shin splint and shoulder condition.

May Prove Troublesome

Berra has had a better year, as have Elston Howard and Andy Carey. In Norm Siebern, their rookie left fielder, the Yankees have a left-handed spray hitter who is apt to prove troublesome to Burdette because he hits to the opposite field.

On the Yankee debit side, Bill Skowron, Gil McDougald and Tony Kubek don't appear as potent as last year, at bat or in the field.

The Braves are at least as good as they were last year even with left fielder Wes Covington played by aching legs. Haney said he would not know whether Covington would be in the opening day lineup but the betting is he'll be in left field with the right-handed Joe Adcock playing first base. Frank Torre, despite a sore left wrist, will play first base against right-handed pitching.

Another questionable spot in the Braves' lineup is center field. Bill Bruton, the regular in that position, has still not fully recovered from his knee operation last winter.

The rest of the lineup — "Red" Schoendienst at second, Johnny Logan at short, Henry Aaron in right, Eddie Mathews at third and Del Crandall behind the plate — is all set.

Cincinnati — Mayo Smith will be the manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs next season and if he believes in the magic of numbers he probably thinks he has a pennant winner coming up.

The Redlegs won the National league pennant in 1919. Twenty years later in 1939 they won again. Now 1959 is coming up.

Of course, Cincinnati also won in 1940 so Smith, deposited as manager of the Philadelphia Phils only a little more than two months ago, might have to wait until 1960.

The contract he signed Monday, however, with Cincinnati is only a 1-year agreement.

Quit Aug. 14

Tebbetts, who took over the Redlegs in 1954, quit last Aug. 14 because, he said, he thought it would be best for baseball in Cincinnati. Dykes finished out the season as an interim manager.

Smith's major league experience covers less than four seasons as a manager and only 73 games as a player.

After a successful record in the New York Yankees farm system as a manager, he directed the Philadelphia Phils to one fourth and two fifth place finishes. His club was sixth when he was ousted last July 22.

St. Nicholas Has 1st Sellout In 11 Years

New York —(AP)— "If boxing is dead, that was a helluva wake."

So said matchmaker-promoter Teddy Brenner today as

A red hot Puerto Rican attraction in undefeated middleweight Jose Torres and no television accounted for the turnaway crowd of 3,216.

To make Brenner's cup of tea sweeter, Torres, 22-year-old graduate of the Olympics, stopped veteran Otis Woodard in the fifth round of the 10-rounder to the thunderous cheers of the Puerto Rican fans. That made Jose's record 6-0, including four kayos. Unable to sell the show to television stations, Brenner gambled without TV in his first card in a month.

"This proves the fans will turn out and pay for something they want to see," said Brenner. "Boxing is far from dead."

Dr. Samuel Swetnick's decision to stop the fight after the fifth round ended—a round in which Woodard was staggered twice—provoked angry outbursts from middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson, Woodard, and manager Harry Wiley. Woodard is Robinson's sparring partner, and the champ was in his corner.

36 Wins in 10 Seasons

Packer Reporter 'Fed Up' With Losing; Howton's Showing Panned

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay—Tuesday Quarterback: I'm fed up with the Packers losing — right up to the neck!

This writer has covered the Packers 12 complete seasons since the war — and one-plus before. There have been some happy seasons. But since 1948, the Packers have won only 36 games, lost the whopping total of 83 and tied one. The Bears made it No. 84 Sunday. I am getting gray, skinny and old — and as a result, you all have tears in your eyes as big as saucers, I'm sure.

Win 101 Games But, just think of a guy I know from Cleveland. His name is Herman Goldstein and he's been newspaper-covering the Browns since they started in 1946. Goldstein, over the same period as the Packer drought, had the pleasure of watching the Browns win 101 games, lose only 27 and tie four.

Seriously, it is disturbing being on the business end of a losing typewriter all the time. It grows more and more difficult not to be cynical but there is usually a redeeming feature about most defeats — especially those at the hands of the Bears. This is because the Packers usually fight like you-know-what against their arch-enemies.

The Packers once failed to complete a pass all afternoon vs. the Bears. That was in 1949 when the Bays lost, 17-0. There was the 1954 game in the mud; the Bears won, 10-3, when Tobin Rote fumbled. particular day or is on the skids.

They were all great battles. That would be Billy Howton. And Sundays' 34-20 loss was ton, our offensive left end. a smasheroo and well worth We've always considered the price of admission. Like Howton next to Don Hutson as the guy said last night: a pass catcher. Bill has shown for $4.75 and then argue just as good a pair of hands about it all week; This is when he's mentally toughened Monday night and we're still ed and wearing glue. We don't think this natural whiz is on the toboggan; Billy is a peak.

Billy Wasn't Himself Sunday's contest saddened of his career 28 — as of last this writer for two reasons— July 5. first because our team lost. Howton was just a poor end and second because one of Sunday. He made Vic Zucco the finest athletes on the field look silly a year ago beating Billy — just wasn't himself this him downfield regularly. day, Billy couldn't get out of a paper bag held shut by Zucco with some help, of course. Athletes like Howton don't waste away that fast. Granted, the quarterbacks couldn't get the ball to Billy a few times and the Bears 2-timed him most of the time but conversely, Howton wasn't opening up and sucking some of the pressure off the middle and away from Max McGee, when the pass was to him (Max).

Seven Big 10 Teams Capture Opening Tilts

Michigan State, Michigan Open Conference Slate

BY JOE MOOSHIL Associated Press Sports Writer

Big Ten teams, having done themselves proud with seven opening day victories against non-conference foes, meet another wave of inter-sectional competition this week.

Except for the Michigan-Michigan State conference opener Saturday, Big Ten teams will tackle opponents from every section of the country.

Both Michigan State and Michigan scored opening day triumphs but the Wolverines barely made it with a 20-19 decision over Southern Cal. Michigan State, as expected, had little trouble in subduing California, 32-12.

Wildcats Surprise
Indiana, Minnesota and Illinois were beaten although Minnesota and Illinois were favorites. Northwestern provided a surprise with its 28-28 triumph over Washington State. Indiana put on a struggle before bowing to Notre Dame, 18-0. Minnesota fumbled away its final chance, and lost to Washington, 24-21, and Illinois — usually a poor team on opening day — lost to UCLA, 18-14.

The big powers — Wisconsin, Ohio State, Purdue and Iowa — came through and all except Ohio State turned in shutouts. Ohio State, ranked No. 1 nationally last week, had its hands full in clipping Southern Methodist, 23-20. Purdue blanked Nebraska, 28-0; Iowa defeated Texas A Christian, 17-0, and Wisconsin dropped Miami of Florida, 20-0, Friday night. Neither Wisconsin nor Iowa expect any trouble this week but Purdue should get a good test at Rice Saturday night. The Owls are coming off a 30-7 triumph over Stanford. Wisconsin takes on Marquette and Iowa is host to the Air Force academy which is making its first appearance against a Big Ten team.

Ray Gevelinger Posts 602 in KC Couples Circuit

Don Frank blasted a 242 and a 612 to lead kegling efforts in the Fox Valley Fish Couples league at Hahn's over the weekend. The Sturgeon and Catfish (5-1) share first place.

Ray Gevelinger patted the tenpins to the tune of a 602 in the Knights of Columbus Couples league at the Elks club Sunday. He's on the Sirloins team.

Ed Bohatschek's 233 for the Pork Chops was the peak game. He wound up with 558.

Rolls 523 Triple
Bea Hagman rolled the women's best scores, a 208 and a 523, for the Sirloins. The Prime Ribs (5-1) own a 1-game league lead.

Jim Traas and Bob Timmers scored honors in the Tavern league at Hahn's with 598s. Timmers blasted a 245 game along the route. Traas hit a 233. Melody (11-1) owns a 21-game lead.

Joe Strobl put together a 569 aggregate in Hahn's Trinity league. Liebers (6-3) leads by one game.

"Bud" Exverts smashed a 567 triple in the Post-Crescent Couples circuit. The Linotypes and Typesetters (5-1) share the lead.

"Birdie" Bauhs rattled a 517 threesome in the Air Corps wheel at the Elks club. One of her games was a 193. Rosemary Medd's 198 was the loftiest singleton. Unmuth's (8-1) leads the loop. The lone honor tally in the Elks Amer-

Packer Memories

Goldenberg Had Big Scoring Day in 1933

BY JACK RUDOLPH Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — The late Bob Zuppke is supposed to have been the first to observe out loud that a football takes funny bounces. He might have added that when Fate punts, the bounces are liable to be even more fantastic.

That's why "Buckets" Goldenberg thinks the Packer-

Last of Series

Eagle game in City stadium, Oct. 29, 1933, is the most memorable of his 13-year career.

He scored three touchdowns as Green Bay dumped the Eagles, 35-9, but he remembers it chiefly as the second time he played a key role in the defeat of a team coached by Lud Wray. Had the ball bounced a little differently, he might have been playing for Wray instead of against him.

A Major Factor
When Buckets was a sophomore at Wisconsin, Wray brought a heavily-favored Pennsylvania team to Madison. Goldenberg was a major factor in the Badgers' 27-0 upset of the Quakers, and after the game Wray singled him out to say he wished he were playing for Penn.

In 1933, Wray, then coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, tried hard to land Goldenberg. He almost had it made until "Curly" Lambeau began flapping his silver tongue, and Buckets wound up in Packer spangles.

The Eagles were newcomers to the National Football league that year, and so was Goldenberg. Although Clarke Hinkle was the regular Packer fullback, Buckets, who had starred at guard in college and was to wind up his professional days in the same spot, broke in as Hinkle's understudy. He did so well that he was used much of the time, with Clarke shifted to half-back.

The Eagles proved unexpectedly tough and made a fight of it until they faded in the final quarter. About the only Packer they couldn't handcuff was Goldenberg. Eagles Strike Back.

In the opening period, the Packers reached the 5 on a pass from Bob Monnett to Johnny Blood, and Goldenberg smashed over from a foot out. Later in the quarter Wuer Engelmann went 55 yards with an intercepted pass to make it 14-0.

Other high scores: Joe Offenstien, 605; Heinie Reitzner, 594; Gene Weiland, 560; John Plach, 556.

"Tavne" Manago, 571; Art Vandenberg, 565; "Kat" Kasube, 562; Jack Van Vonderen, 554; Joe Zeeger, 551; Lee Shebelske, 232; Gordy Lukic, 231.

TRINITY: Larry Norman, 556.

The Eagles added a safety in the third.

Just before the period ended the Bays reached the Eagle 4 following an interception by Cal Hubbard. Goldenberg tumbled on the 2 as the final quarter opened, but Rudy Cornstock recovered for a loss. Buckets then caught a loss from Monnett and went eight yards for his second TD.

Blood later took Monnett's pass for another Packer tally.

Goldenberg scored the last Packer touchdown when Guy Turnbow's punt from near his goal line was partially blocked. Buckets took the short kick on the Eagle 30 and rambled all the way, aided by Lavvie Dilweg's fine block.

Buckets returned to the Packer front line when his running years were over. He retired in 1946 after helping Green Bay to three more league championships.

For the past 15 years Goldenberg has been running Pappy's restaurant and cocktail lounge on the Port Washington road, north of Milwaukee. He is also a Milwaukee member of the Packer board of directors.

Pastrano Meets Brian London in 10-Rounder

London — (P) — American heavyweight Willie Pastrano will have two items of business tonight: one to whip England's Brian London again and the other to impress a Swedish agent at the ringside. Watching the return 10-round contest at Harringay arena will be Edwin Ahlquist, manager of Sweden's European champion Ingemar Johansson.

Johansson is rated No. 1 contender for Floyd Patterson's world crown since stopping Eddie Machen earlier this month. Pastrano has stuck at No. 3 while other fighters see - sawed around him.

London has been crowned British heavyweight champion since the 22-year-old Pastrano from Miami Beach, Fla., narrowly defeated him on points last February.

List Blue Chip Stocks With 5 Pct. Yield

Doyle Recommends Quality Purchases In Utility Field

BY WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. You have advised people to buy blue chip stocks that yield 5 per cent. I like your advice but am having difficulty finding 'high quality' stocks that yield 5 per cent. Any suggestions?

A. It could be that your definition of blue chips is slightly different from mine. You can get all kinds of arguments as to what is a quality stock.

So, I'll list a few that I personally consider blue chips, all of which are selling at prices to yield 5 per cent or better in dividends. Here they are: Allied Mills, Anderson Clayton, Consolidated Edison, Duquesne Light, May Department Stores, J. N. Newberry, Niagara Mohawk Power, Public Service Electric and Gas and Standard Brands.

I'm not saying that these are the best stocks around today. These are merely examples. There are many other good grade securities available at prices that result in roughly the same yields.

Even American Telephone and Telegraph, the bluest of the blue chips, could be bought at a yield of better than 4.6 per cent at the height of its recent runup.

Lost Bonds

Q. How can I go about tracing some lost U.S. savings bonds? My wife and I purchased the bonds some years ago but have not seen them for about three years. Can they be replaced?

A. Yes. That's the beauty of U. S. bonds. It's one of the things that makes them the safest investment in the whole, wide world.

All you have to do is write to the U.S. Treasury Department, Division of Savings Bonds, 536 S. Clark street, Chicago, Ill., and state that you want to trace some lost savings bonds.

The government, at that Chicago office, keeps a record of every savings bond that was ever issued, reissued or redeemed. A simple, 1-page form will be sent to you. Fill it out and return it.

WISCONSIN TELEPHONE COMPANY

You don't even have to know the serial number of the lost bonds. The main thing is that you know exactly to whom the bonds were issued; in your name, your wife's name, etc.

Check Records
The treasury department will check its microfilm records and, if your statement is accurate, you will receive bonds duplicating the ones you lost.

Q. I have followed the stock of Ampex corporation for quite a while. The stock is selling in the over-the-counter market for about $40 a share. The company produces magnetic tape recording equipment. This would be my first attempt in the stock market, so I would like your opinion.

A. If you have followed this one closely, you undoubtedly know that Ampex is in a position to do well as magnetic tape comes into greater use. But you must keep in mind that the use of magnetic tape in military, industrial and television application is still a new field.

It's competitive and should become even more so as the industry grows. Ampex, because it is on the ground floor, may skyrocket or plummet. There's a good bit of risk involved. If you are willing and can afford to assume that risk, go ahead. Nobody can stop you.

Personally, I would rather see you pick something much more conservative on your first trip to the market place.

Landwehr, Hackl Ordered to Deal With Union

Thomas Landwehr and August Hackl, operators of a gravel pit, have been ordered by Circuit Court Judge Andrew W. Parnell to bargain with Local 139 of the Operating Engineers.

The court order enforces a ruling of the Wisconsin Employment Relations board made in July. Local 139 claimed the gravel pit owners made salary negotiations with employees without bargaining with the union.

Specifically Landwehr and Hackl were ordered to stop refusing to bargain collectively with Local 139 and to stop making changes in the agreement involving wages, hours and working conditions without collective bargaining.

The firm also was ordered to notify the Employment Relations board within five days of the steps taken to comply with the order.
